GAS TAX PENNY HIKE LOOKS LIKELY

IKE INCLINED TO APPROVE

House Committee Votes 16-9 For 22-Month 1-Cent-Gallon Boost

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower gave qualified approval Tuesday to a 22-month one-cent-a-gallon increase in the federal gasoline tax to keep the money-short interstate highway program from bogging down.

Although this plan falls short of the 1½-cent boost he asked over the next 5 years in the present 3-cent a gallon tax, Eisenhower said it "represents a step in the right direction."

It would mean slowing down the present construction rates, the President said, but a one-cent increase "would allow a reasonable rate of progress to be maintained."

Eisenhower's views, his first indication that he might accept a highway financing plan approved by the House Ways and Means Committee, was sent to Congress shortly after the committee by a 16-9 vote reaffirmed its earlier approval.

Compromise Rejected

The committee did so in slapping down a compromise pushed by House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) aimed at ending a deadlock in Congress over ways to finance the huge highway construction program. Rayburn's plan to limit the penny increase to one year was beaten 13-12.

The committee, acting on a take-it-or-leave it basis, also directed its chairman, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark) to take the legislation directly to the floor without referring it to the House Public Works Committee, as would be normal.

The two committees have been at loggerheads over how to keep construction of the 41,000-mile interstate network from coming to a standstill for lack of funds.

Sharp Issue Taken

Eisenhower's message to Congress took sharp issue with a provision in the House Ways and Means bill to dip into the government's general revenues for some of the money needed for highways. However, he did not indicate whether he would veto the legislation if this feature is not removed.

"A small increase in the tax on gasoline is the best way to put the interstate highway program on a self-supporting basis," Eisenhower said. "I must again express my objection to proposals that would, in the absence of forseeable budget surpluses, divert receipts from the general fund . . ."

Both Rayburn's compromise and the Ways and Means will would divert 800 million dollars a year from the general fund after the proposed one-cent tax increase expired.

Under the committee bill, this would start July 1, 1961, and under Rayburn's compromise, July 1, 1960.

Another Source

One-half of the present 10% tax on automobile manufacturer's excise tax and two-thirds of the tax on auto parts and accessories would be diverted for 3 years from the government's general revenues to highway building.

Eisenhower said "the transfer of these receipts to the highway trust fund would only shift the fiscal problem from the highway trust fund, which is already in precarious balance."

Eisenhower said there is an urgent need for legislation to allow the highway program "to proceed at a steady rate." A good beginning has been made under the program enacted in 1956, "And it is inconceivable that it should be allowed to come to a halt."

The slapdown of Rayburn was the result of his efforts to bring together the two committees in Congress which have the most say-so about federal highway plans.

Bond Rate: Ike Prods Congress For Hike

Washington (AP) — Cracking the whip, President Eisenhower told Congress Tuesday it is inviting inflation and a higher cost of living by refusing to permit higher interest rates on federal bonds.

On the eve of his departure for Europe, the President sent two special messages to the Democratic-controlled Congress.

In one, he demanded approval of his proposal to eliminate the 4¼% interest ceiling on long term government bonds, saying "No issue of greater importance has come before this session of Congress."

If the legislation is not enacted, the President told the House and Senate, 'those in Congress who are unwilling to pass it must assume full responsibility for the possibly serious consequences."

Pushes Gas Tax Hike

In a companion message, Eisenhower applied new pressure for a boost in the federal gasoline tax to keep the giant highway building program on an even financial keel.

His direct approach came a few hours after he told his news conference these were among bills that "clearly demand attention before the Congress closes its doors."

Others in this group Eisenhower listed as:

"An effective labor reform bill, a civil rights program such as I urged upon the Congress, (and) adequate appropriations to carry forward the imperatively needed mutual security (foreign aid) program."

In taking the fight to Capitol Hill, Eisenhower hit particularly hard at the interest rate issue. He called "a grave disappointment to me" the action of the House Ways and Means Committee in shelving his proposal for this session.

Bonds Hard To Sell

The administration wants the power to go above the 41-year-old ceiling of 4¼% in floating bond issues for 5 years or more. In the current market, the Treasury contends, it is impossible for government bonds to compete with other securities yielding more interest to investors.

Eisenhower said the 4¼% ceiling is an artificial limitation and forces the Treasury to rely on potentially inflationary short-term borrowing.

Thousands Of License Plates Faulty, But Being Replaced

Several thousand sets of 1960 Nebraska license plates with faulty paint jobs inadvertently have been shipped to counties, but automobile owners can rest assured they'll not receive any of the bad plates, State Motor Vehicle Department Director Al Scissors reported Tuesday.

The faulty plates resulted from a mechanical problem with paint rollers at the Men's Reformatory where the plates are manufactured, Scissors said.

He estimated that 3 or 4 thousand unsatisfactory sets went out before the situation became known.

Counties which received the early plate shipments have been alerted to inspect the supply for bad plates.

Some counties have returned the faulty plates. Others have reported the numbers of faulty plates found so they can be replaced.

A few larger counties will check supplies as the plates are issued, culling out bad ones found. Supplementary supplies of plates are being readied for these counties, Scissors said.

Plate shipments to the counties began last spring, earlier than usual. This was done to clear our a Reformatory storage building on which the roof was being replaced.

Plates which had not yet been shipped were inspected at the Reformatory.

One complication could result in counties which wait until plates are issued next January to locate and cull out faulty plates. Some car owners accustomed to a particular number may find their numbers in the bad-plate group. The department, however, will do its best to give owners the plate numbers expected, Scissors said.

Enrollment Guesses: NU Up, NWU And Union No Change

Advance enrollment figures for Lincoln's 3 colleges, the result of some "educated guesses" by school officials, show that the University of Nebraska enrollment will be up and Wesleyan University and Union College will have about the same number of students as last year.

Floyd Hoover, NU register, said that enrollment at the University would be "up a little" for the 1959-50 fall semester. Hoover estimated that about 8,600 students will register at the University's Lincoln campuses and the College of Medicine in Omaha.

This is an increase over students for the fall semester. It is under the University's recorded enrollment of 10,153 in 1947, however.

Harold Wise, associate dean of the University's graduate college, said that he expects "about 930" graduate students in the fall. Hoover noted that the University's College of Medicine in Omaha usually enrolls from 450-500 students.

Fred Hess, assistant to the president at Wesleyan University, said that enrollment there would be "about the same" as last year's record enrollment of 997.

Union College also expects an enrollment equal to last year's figure, according to Miss Marie Anderson, registrar. A total of 751 students were enrolled at Union College for the fall semester lest year.

FARM WORKER DEMAND LIGHT

The demand for farm workers was generally light throughout the state, the State Division of Employment Security said Tuesday. However, most locations continue to report a shortage of well qualified single and married workers for year-around work.

During the past week the division said it had placed 562 persons on agricultural jobs.

SQUIRREL HUNTER KILLED BY WASPS

Martinsville, Ind. (AP) — A squirrel hunter stepped on a wasp nest near here and was stung to death by a swarm of the angry insects.

Carl A. Rizzo, 37, Indianapolis, tried to run to a nearby creek to elude the attackers, but he dropped dead before he could reach the water.

Ex-Dictator Faces Threat Of Extradition

Miami, Fla. (AP) — Marcos Perez Jimenez' extradition was sought Tuesday by Venezuela, which charged the former dictator with murder and embezzlement.

Perez Jimenez was hustled from his home by Deputy U.S. marshals, held in a detention room several hours, fingerprinted, booked, and bailed in U.S. district court.

The plump, balding exile told newsmen "I am sure the charges are political and brought for political motives." He also said the accusations were "absolutely false."

"I have complete confidence in the high quality of American justice," the 45-year-old Perez Jimenez said as he left the federal building to return to the Miami Beach mansion he bought on fleeing Venezuela more than 18 months ago.

Bond Is High

Perez Jimenez posted $25,000 bond in U.S. district court on the extradition warrant pending further Venezuelan moves. Venezuela has 60 days in which to produce evidence.

The former dictator was arrested at his sumptuous Miami Beach home after Venezuelan Consul Manuel Aristeguieta filed a complaint under a 1922 extradition treaty between Venezuela and the U.S.

Tot Slightly Hurt

Linda Messman, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Messman of 6820 Vine, suffered bruises and a hurt finger when she collided with the side of a car in front of her home. The little girl collided with the car when she stepped into the street from in front of a parked truck, according to police. Driver of the car was Edna M. Mitchell, 25, of 260 West Rio Rd.

McDonald To Ike: Don't Bring Taft-Hartley Into Strike

New York (AP) — David J. McDonald, president of the Steelworkers Union, said Tuesday that use of the Taft-Hartley act in the 6-week steel strike would irritate labor-management relations and settle nothing.

"It would leave a festering sore that would scar and irritate labor-management relations in this vital industry for years to come," McDonald told a news conference.

Under the act, President Eisenhower could invoke a provision requiring workers to return to their jobs for an 80-day cooling off period while a fact-finding board studied the dispute.

No Progress

McDonald talked with newsmen as negotiations between the leading companies and the union continued without progress.

He noted that R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, had said Monday he did not favor invocation of the Taft-Hartley law in the present dispute and expressed hope that Cooper was sincere.

McDonald said Taft-Hartley injunctions cannot substitute for justice.

He said the steelworkers were ready to stay out until their demands were met "no matter how long it takes or the amount of the sacrifice."

Adenauer Returns

Bonn, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer flew home to Bonn Tuesday to begin a round of talks preparatory to President Eisenhower's arrival. Adenauer had been vacationing in Italy. The 83-year-old chancellor was heavily sun-tanned and appeared in the best of health.

Dominy Sherman Dam Ground-Break Speaker

. . . Commissioner One Of 1,500 At Ceremonies

By Gene Budig

St. Paul, Neb. — Reclamation means new life for the residents of the Middle Loup Valley.

This point was stressed by Floyd E. Dominy, commissioner of reclamation, at the groundbreaking ceremonies for the Sherman Dam Tuesday.

Dominy

Some 1,500 persons, including Gov. Ralph G. Brooks, Sen. Carl T. Curtis and a host of Bureau of Reclamation officials, turned out despite high winds.

Work on the dam, which is part of the $33 million Farwell Irrigation project, will begin in the near future.

4,600 Feet Long

The 4,600-foot-long earthen dam is the first structure to be built in the Federal Government financed project.

"Construction on this project should be completed within the next 6 years," Dominy said. The construction includes the mile-long Sherman Dam, Sherman Reservoir holding nearly 70,000 acre-feet of water, Arcadia diversion works, the Farwell canals totaling 85 miles and laterals totaling 325 miles.

The Farwell project will provide irrigation, flood control, fish and wildlife and proper recreational facilities, he pointed out.

Benefits Cited

"These annual benefits will exceed annual costs associated with construction, operation and maintenance in the ratio of 2-to-1," the Washington, D.C., Bureau chief said.

In other words, for each dollar invested in the construction and operation, the people of the United States will receive benefits of two dollars. The project is entirely financed by the Federal Government.

"Of the total cost of construction $32.3 million is reimbursable," Dominy explained.

"The irrigators and the Reclamation District will repay $9.3 million, and the remainder of $23 million will be returned to the Treasury from pooled power and other revenues of the Missouri River Basin Project," he added.

Reverse Population Trend

The irrigation expert also said that he expects a change in the cropping pattern and a reversal in the population trend for the Middle Loup area.

Dominy, born and reared near Hastings, Neb., reported that now 42% of the acreage of the area is in corn, 40% in small grains and 14% in alfalfa.

However, experience under irrigation programs indicate that under irrigation corn will drop to about 32%, small grains to about 15% and the balance of the acreage will be turned over to hay, pasture and sugar beets.

Reports on the North Platte Project, one of the Bureau's first, show that each 1,000 irrigated acres will support 134 persons on farms and in towns, he added.

Therefore, it is assumed that 40,000 acres will be in production eventually in the Farwell system and the population will grow from its estimated 4,400 to 5,360.

Plane's Ruins, Bones Found

Campbell River, B.C. (AP)—A wrecked U.S. Navy Neptune patrol plane and 11 skeletons were found Tuesday at the 4,000-foot level on nearby Mount McCreight.

The Royal Canadian Air Force search party which reached the scene believed the plane was one reported missing in 1951 by the Whidbey Island, Wash., Naval air station.

U.S. naval authorities, advised that the plane's log books contained 1951 entries, also believed it was the missing aircraft. Another Whidbey Island Neptune has been missing in the same Vancouver Island area since 1948, with 9 men aboard.

The Canadian search party went to the scene after a fisherman reported sighting the wreckage.

Fiery Crash Kills 2

...At Laurel

Lincoln Star Special

Laurel, Neb. Two men died when their truck rammed a Chicago and North Western train and turned into a blazing pyre late Tuesday night on the northern outskirts of Laurel.

The locomotive and two freight cars of the train were slammed into a ditch and rails were ripped up.

The State Safety Patrol identified the victims:

William Keiffer, 32, of Remington, Ind., died in the crash.

Walter W. Winchell, 32, of Kalamazoo, Mich., died early Wednesday of injuries and burns.

The truck burned, becoming an unrecognizable mass of molten metal, witnesses said.

Tracks at the scene were torn up as 4 cars of the freight and the locomotive were derailed and crashed into a ditch.

One witness described the scene as "horrible" as flames from the Consolidated Freightways of Chicago truck shot flames 50 feet in the air.

Both of the victims were trapped in the cab, investigators said.

The tragedy occurred as the truck, southbound on Highway 15, collided with the eastbound train.

Safety Patrol officials said the wreckage would probably block the highway all night.

Father, 76, Young Son Held In Triple Slaying

From Press Reports

Pineville, Ky. — A frail, timid 12-year-old boy and his 76-year-old father were charged with murder Tuesday night in the shotgun slaying of 3 neighbors.

"We still don't know the whole story," said State Police Sgt. John Robey, who questioned Frank Pierce, the child, and Charley Pierce, the father.

The officer said it has not been determined who used the 12-gauge shotgun which snuffed out the lives of the neighboring Hatfield family at the scene of a disputed piece of property at nearby Four-Mile Hollow.

Miss Beulah Mae Hatfield, 38, and her mother, Mrs. Arlene Hatfield, 79, were killed instantly by blasts of heavy buckshot. Jesse Hatfield, 81, died a few hours later in a hospital.

All had been shot in the head. It was not determined if any of the Hatfields was armed.

The boy insisted from the first he killed the Hatfields. His father supported his version, Robey said.

"But we've found some holes in the old man's story," Robey added without elaboration.

Pierce told officials the boy fired the fatal shots from high weeds in an effort to protect his father from the advancing Hatfields.

Bell County Attorney Martin Wilson doubted the boy could have fired the shots.

"I'm a little critical of the boy being that much of an expert," the county attorney said.

Robey described the boy as "timid looking. He has no features you'd notice that would make you think he was in this. Just a normal boy."

The dispute focused on a 6-foot-wide strip of land between Hatfield and Pierce properties. Both families claim to own it.

The Hatfields were not believed closely related to the Hatfields in a nearby county who carried on a famous feud with the McCoys which ended in the early 1900s.

Man Killed, 3 Others Hurt Near Brady

Brady, Neb. (AP) — One man was killed and 3 persons injured Tuesday in a headon collision on U.S. Highway 30 5 miles east of Brady during a rainstorm.

Killed was Axel Sholund, 74, of Gothenburg. His wife, Mabel, 70, was reported in critical condition in Gothenburg Memorial Hospital.

State troopers said the accident occurred when the Sholund vehicle attempted a left turn. Injured in the other car were Claude J. Peay, 39, of North Platte and his wife Mildred. Both were reported in serious condition.

Hearing Sought This Week On Airport Authority

Mill Levy Collection Halt Asked

By Virgil Falloon

A Lancaster District Court hearing for a temporary order restraining the City of Lincoln from collecting a one-mill levy for the Lincoln Airport Authority will be sought this week, Atty. Leo N. Bartunek said Tuesday.

Bartunek represents two Lincoln taxpayers, C. O. Blanchard and C. C. Earley, in their suit seeking to have declared invalid the state statutes under which the Lincoln Airport Authority was established.

Meanwhile, Bartunek said the plaintiffs would move Wednesday for a temporary restraining order against the one-mill levy.

'Too Late'

"If things are allowed to drag along, it will become too late to enjoin collection of the tax," Bartunek added.

The Council officially set the levy Monday for the Authority and city tax notices are due to be mailed out on Oct. 1.

Bartunek said he would attempt to have a hearing date set for not later than Friday.

In this connection, City Atty. Ralph Nelson indicated the city and Airport Authority would be ready for a hearing whenever the plaintiffs' attorney is ready.

Sept. 28 Deadline

Meanwhile, the Authority and city has until Sept. 28 to answer the allegations in the Blanchard-Earley suit.

The Authority has requested $1.5 million in federal funds toward construction of a $3.4 million municipal airport east of the city.

A Lincoln FAA official has indicated that federal approval funds probably wouldn't come until early November.

The Authority plans to use part of one mill levy to retire a possible $1.9 million revenue bond issue over the next 20 years that would be used to finance local costs of the airport construction.

500 Signers

On another front, Blanchard said a "protest petition drive" against the new airport east of the city netted an estimated 500 signatures during the first day effort.

However, Blanchard explained that petitions are still being put out and the drive "probably won't get into full swing until this weekend."

The drive is aiming at over 10,000 signatures as expression of public opinion against the east Lincoln site.

He reported numerous phone calls from persons wanting to sign and circulate the petitions.

"It's too early to tell," Blanchard said, "but initial efforts have been surprising."

CB&Q May Put End To Trains 41, 44

Alliance, Neb. (AP) — The Burlington Railroad has told the Alliance Chamber of Commerce that it may file application with the State Railway Commission to discontinue Trains 41 and 44 between Alliance and Lincoln.

The trails run daily except Sunday.

Herbert C. Wallace, general passenger agent from Omaha, was in Alliance Monday to discuss the matter. He said no formal application would be made to the state commission until he has visited at all towns along the line.

Wallace told Alliance officials that 41 and 44 showed a deficit of nearly $72,000 in 1958 and that the trains have become almost strictly mail and express runs. He added that a great loss is expected this year.

Mail, he said, that has been handled in 41 and 44 would be handled by truck. Freight would be handled by trains 42 and 43, which Wallace said enjoy good patronage between Alliance and Lincoln.

Westbound 41 arrives in Alliance at 4 a.m. and eastbound departs at 11 a.m.

Merritt To Navy Missile School

Leroy Merritt of 6250 Francis, one of 10 former Northeast High School students who joined the Navy in a "buddy group" last June, has qualified for the Navy's guided missile school.

Merritt is apparently the first Lincolnite to qualify for the missile program, according to the Lincoln Navy Recruiting Office.

Now home on leave from boot camp, young Merritt will go to the Navy Aviation guided missile school at Memphis, Tenn., where he will qualify himself for repair, testing and maintenance of the Navy's guided missiles.

Leroy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Merritt.

Boxcar Repairing Finished—CB&Q Laying Off 156

Completion of a boxcar repair program at Havelock shops will result in 156 temporary workers being laid off Friday.

Hired on a temporary basis in January to make repairs on a backlog of some 2,000 cars, the 156 workers are no longer needed, a Burlington official said.

"That is the only reason they are being let off," he said. The layoff has nothing to do with the current steel strike, he emphasized.

No employment reduction in the regular 500 to 600-man work force at Havelock shops is anticipated, he added.

Federal proceedings against a Lincoln couple, accused of stealing and forging a U.S. government check, were continued Tuesday to an unspecified date by U.S. District Judge Robert Van Pelt.

The continuance was granted to permit the defendants, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Adger of 2202 T, further opportunity to consult with their attorney.

Mrs. Adger, 28, the former Louise Mapp, is charged with theft of the check from a mailbox at 2012 Vine, which she allegedly mailed to her husband at Washington, D.C.

Adgger, 27, a construction worker, is charged with forging a name on the check and cashing it at Washington.

Both defendants are free on separate $1,000 bonds pending further case proceedings, probably sometime in early September.

'500' Champ Ward Has Go-Carters A-Flutter

By Charles Beal

If you were near 11th and N Tuesday night, you would have thought that someone had loosed a horde of power lawnmowers into the city.

The air was literally popping with excitement.

The occasion?

The first annual Go-Cart Road-eo, sponsored by the Lincoln Promotion Council and Lincoln-Lancaster Safety Council.

No less than 34 Lincoln youngsters had the 2½-horsepower motors of their "go-carts," a modern-day soap box derby item with a gas engine, going full blast during competitive driving tests.

Indianapolis Winner

And, to further flutter the hearts of the youthful driving enthusiasts was the presence of Rodger Ward, 1959 winner of the Indianapolis 500 Speedway race.

Ward em-ceed the event which gave the kids, ages 10-16 an opportunity to learn early the importance of turn signals, driving a straight line, visual acuity (driving back and forth between obstacles) and steadiness (driving between wavy white lines).

Speed was de-emphasized, although the contestants were allowed to "open 'er up" for a single lap at the end of the tests.

Takes A Lap

Ward got the evening started by doing a turn around the course in a go-cart to the delight of the scores of youngsters watching and participating.

An attendant warned him of a dip in the pavement which might prove to be a bit rough at "high" speeds.

"Don't worry," the hero of Indianapolis, who set a track record of 137.39 m.p.h. this year, said. "This speed scares me. I'm gonna go slow—especially without my crash helmet."

Small boys nearby gaped open-mouthed.

The king of speed, admittedly a "hot-rodder" in his youth, had some wise words for teen-agers at a Lincoln High School driver training class earlier Tuesday.

O St. Hot-Rod

Fifteen years of racing, including 9 Indianapolis Speedway races have changed his attitude toward speed, he said, since the time, when as a lieutenant at Lincoln Air Force Base during World War II, he hot-rodded down O Street.

"I was lucky," he said.

He went on to tell of the not-so-lucky 40,000 persons killed on highways each year, out of which 8,000 are teen-agers.

Pointing out that lack of mental alertness is too often a failing of young drivers, Ward said, he likes to feel "that my brain is my major safety device."

Two other principal safety factors too often ignored he said are courtesy and car condition.

Present with Ward at the Road-eo was his beautiful dark-haired wife, Jo. The parents of two boys, the Wards plan to build a home in Indianapolis this fall.

"With their daddy's background," Mrs. Ward said, "We can hardly tell the boys they shouldn't be interested in hot rods and the like."

"But," she said, "we are careful to emphasize that there is a place for such activity and that tracks have been built for it."

Stromsburg Native

Mrs. Ward, whose mother is a native Nebraskan, went to grade school at Stromsburg. She has relatives in Lincoln and Ashland.

One of 9 well-known racing drivers touring the country for a spark plug firm, giving safety talks before high schools, the 38-year-old Ward said he is a firm believer in driver education.

He cited statistics showing that youthful drivers having attended a driver education course have 50% fewer accidents and violate highway laws 65% less than youngsters not attending such courses.

How Did He Begin?

How did he get into the big car racing game?

The stocky racer, whose demeanor and manner of speech could pass him off as a doctor or lawyer, told how at the age of 13, he met Rex Mays, the then national racing car hero. This even, combined with his natural interest in cars and driving led him into racing professionally.

"I guess you could say I wanted recognition too," Ward added. "I think I strove for recognition through racing just as other men strive for it by other means."

$412,392 In Apparent Low Hallam Bids

Columbus, Neb. — Apparent low bids totalling $412,392 were announced Tuesday for Consumers Public Power District's 100,000 kw "Sheldon Station" conventional steam power plant and the sodium graphite-type nuclear power facility being built near Hallam.

The apparent low bid of $220,765 was submitted by the Korshoj Const. Co. of Blair for 12-gauge steel to line the substructure around all fuel cells in the nuclear power project.

Eaton Metal of Omaha was the single bidder on supply of 7 carbon steel tanks for the nuclear facility at $26,745.

The Federal Pacific Co. of Omaha bid $60,182 to supply the motor control centers, lighting transformers, and related electric equipment for the steam plant.

Other bidders and prices included General Electric, $63,581; ITE Circuit Breaker Co. of Omaha, $66,501; Dick Supply Co. of Omaha, $69,674, and Westinghouse, $73,270.

According to CPPD officials, 32 contracts for construction and equipment at Hallam have actually been awarded with a total base bid value of $16,293,590.

The conventional steam plant is to be in operation by Apr., 1961. The nuclear power facility is scheduled for testing in late 1961 and to become a power producer in 1962.

Man Sought

Lincoln Police began a search late Tuesday night for a man who grabbed and tried to pick up a "middle-aged" woman near 6th and E. The man was described as being 6-feet-tall, heavy set, and wearing blue work shirt and pants, according to police. The woman said her attacker released her when she screamed.

Judge Van Pelt To Aid Iowa Federal Court

Des Moines (AP) —U.S. District Judge Robert Van Pelt of Lincoln, Neb., will arrive here Thursday to conduct court for the southern district of Iowa.

Judge Van Pelt is coming on special assignment from the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis, to help clean up a backlog of cases.

Edwin R. Hicklin, the presiding judge of the district, asked the special assignment so that he can hold court in Davenport and Council Bluffs in September and October.

Judge Hicklin was unable to hold a spring term of court in Des Moines because of the $750,000 remodeling being done at the federal courthouse. The job still is not completed.

Ike's Goal: Unity Against Aggression

PRESIDENT LEAVES FOR EUROPE TODAY

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower said Tuesday he is going to Europe both to re-pledge America's devotion to peace and to support the West in opposing any aggression, "by force if necessary."

That was the first major point in what amounted to a farewell statement in advance of Eisenhower's take-off before dawn Wednesday.

It was designed to reassure the free world allies and to warn Russia that out of the President's forthcoming exchange of visits with Nikita S. Khrushchev there will be no secret, two-party dealers undermining the Western position.

Eisenhower said he would urge a joint reiteration by Western heads of government that "regardless of pressure or inducement we shall never retreat from our ideals or principles or weaken in our resolution to remain secure as we continue the search for peace."

Bonn First

Flying by jet for the first time, Eisenhower is going to Bonn, Germany, to confer with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, to London to meet with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, and to Paris to consult with President Charles de Gaulle.

Later on, the president is going to Russia, after Soviet Premier Khrushchev visits the United States for 13 days beginning Sept. 15.

Eisenhower displayed a little annoyance at criticism of his plan to return Khrushchev's visit.

He said it would be far-fetched to say such a trip would erode the President's prestige and "I get a little weary about people" who take such a stand.

Ike Will Roll Out Plushest Red Carpet

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower prepared to roll out the plushest of red carpets to greet Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Eisenhower said he personally will go out to the airport to welcome him when the Soviet leader arrives Sept. 15.

And Khrushchev should be treated as a head of state because of Moscow's say-so, Eisenhower said, even though U.S. officials had assumed he ranked diplomatically only as head of government.

The distinction doesn't figure in the real importance attached to Khrushchev's visit. Everyone knows Mr. K. is the Kremlin boss. But according to protocol — diplomatic etiquette — there's a difference.

As head of government, Khrushchev would rate a mere 19-gun salute instead of the full 21 rounds and Eisenhower would not have to greet him at the airport.

Free World Reassured By Nixon

Minneapolis (AP)—Vice President Nixon Tuesday told free world nations there should be no concern that their interests will be compromised during next month's Khrushchev visit to the United States.

He told the American Legion' national convention that President Eisenhower would not be "taken in or bluffed" by the Soviet premier.

Nixon spoke to a Legion waiting to act on resolutions condemning Khrushchev's visit. Last year the Legion passed a resolution opposing visits to this country by Communist leaders.

"There is no doubt whatever that the interests of the United States and the free world will be vigorously, firmly and aggressively represented by the President in this meeting.

Consultation Promised

"We reject the concept that two great powers—the U.S. and the U.S.S.R.—should decide the fate of other peoples without consultation with them,'" Nixon told the Legionnaires.

"While understanding alone will not bring peace, misunderstandings could provoke war," Nixon said.

Nixon said the Soviet leader knows of America's military strength, economic riches and determination to remain strong to keep the peace.

"But he also has some dangerous misconceptions about the United States and the free world, which in the mind of a man with such awesome power in his hands constitute a terrible risk to the peace of the world."

"He will find that we will no more tolerate being pushed around than will he."

Weatherman R. E. Myers Takes Post

Richard E. Myers assumed duties Tuesday as meteorologist in charge of the United States Weather Bureau in Lincoln. Myers succeeds Welby R. Stevens, who retured July 31.

Myers said he noted one main difference between the Lincoln Weather Bureau and others. Lincoln's chief function is acting as a chronological office keeping records of past weather and maintaining current weather information. The main function of most other bureaus is forecasting future weather.

Myers, a native of Utica, is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and began his career with the U.S. Weather Bureau in Lincoln. He received his Master's Degree in meteorology from Iowa State University.

Prior to assuming his new position, Myers was a forecaster at the airport station in Denver. He had also served 2 years as a forecaster at Lemerick, Ireland.

Mrs. Pettit Hurt

Pearl E. Pettit, 71, of 2601 Rathbone Rd., was treated by her physician Tuesday for a pain in her neck and shoulders suffered in a two-car collision at the intersection of South and Pepper. Police reports indicated that a car driven by Henry Heckman, 36, of 439 F, was in collision with the rear of the car driven by Mrs. Pettit.

Don't miss it. News of friends on vacation, marriages, engagements, parties, PTA notes and club meetings makes good reading in The Sunday Journal and Star.

State Fair Won't Have Bingo Games

"Bingo is out at the State Fair this year."

This was the final decision of the State Fair Board concerning bingo games during the State Fair Sept. 5-11, according to Board Secretary Ed Schultz.

Schultz said the decision was made through informal agreement among board members.

"The Fair Board doesn't think bingo will work out at the fair," Schultz said.

He added that the bingo law had been passed by this year's Legislature and that "We want to see someone else try it first."

A bingo license would not be issued to an organization desiring a bingo concession at the fair sine the Fair Board has complete authority concerning what concessions will be issued, according to Gould Flagg, administrator of the bingo law for the State Agriculture Department.

City Action Progresses

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

There wasn't a great deal of significance to the appointment of another person to the City-County Planning Commission. But it would be significant if the City Council followed the recommendations of this group as religiously as it keeps its membership intact. Indeed, such a thing would be next to fantastic.

Impartial And Fair

There isn't a governmental unit within the city or county which can claim the independence that is a part of the Planning Commission. Because of its purpose and through its development, the commission has acquired a reputation for impartiality and good judgment. Not a single instance can be cited wherein the commission has even been suspected of playing to special interests or listening to undue influence. This is due to two things — (1) The Commission can afford to be independent because its decisions are always subject to confirmation by a higher authority such as the City Council or County Board of Commissioners; (2) It has had a distinguished chairman in E. J. Faulkner and equally fine members.

But the former reason has also been a liability in some respects. Lacking final authority in any and all matters, the commission is often disregarded in more official circles. Most recently, a highly questionable zoning change was approved for East O against the recommendations of the commission.

More recently yet, the commission was ignored, practically, in the selection of an airport site. The commission, of course, is not infallible as its members are human beings just like the rest of us.

But the commission does have one unique characteristic — it doesn't give a hang for anything, absolutely nothing, except the welfare of the city as a whole. Nor does it permit itself the convenience of dealing in specifics. It does not look at just one man who thinks he has a right to start a business where it would most likely be successful.

It doesn't consider just the one fellow who happened to get himself in a bind on a bad business deal and needs a zoning change to bail him out. It looks, instead, at the interest of all of the people as this interest can be ascertained from present conditions and future expectations. This should make the thinking of the group most valuable in city and county affairs but such is not the case.

The city, and more recently the county, is willing to spend money for planning but unwilling to take the advice of the planning experts and the commission which works so closely with them. It continues to be one of the most disappointing aspects of city government and still shows no sign of improving. If commission rulings were given more weight, Lincoln could be even a much finer city than it is today.

Probably reminding many people of a particularly sore spot was the Lincoln Promotion Council's request to place fir trees along the downtown streets this Christmas—all appropriately ornamented. This would probably be well received, particularly if it meant the elimination of the Walt Disney characters which have been used in the past.

A Beneficial Purchase

Just about the time we become convinced that people are all getting pretty calloused and commercialized, they rise up in defense of something like traditional Christmas decorations. Also noted among this week's city business was the sale for $20,000 of city property at 48th and Walker. This should have the two-fold benefit of helping the city government and the development of University Place. The building and grounds involved have never been an asset for the University Place business district. At the same time, they have not been of the right size or properly located for the city government.

This sale will provide funds with which the city can secure better quarters elsewhere and will permit private development of the corner into an attractive site for the area. It is a piece of business on which the city is to be complimented. It represents a tax savings and better service, all rolled into one.

How Much Uselessly?

The Navy recently canceled out its program to produce P6M Seamasters — jet seaplanes of which much was expected.

The cancellation came after $400 million had been spent to produce nine faulty planes, partially build a new seaplane base in North Carolina, and partially remodel a ship into a plane tender.

Both the Navy and the Air Force have washed out their separate efforts to produce a high energy jet fuel using boron, but not until nine years and $200 million had been spent. The outlay included three plants to produce the fuel, costing about $15 million. A large number of skilled and technically trained individuals were rendered jobless.

These cancellations, which in some degree are continuing occurrences in the defense program, recall that the Navaho missile development is no more after an expenditure of $500 million. The Regulus II program cost $70 million before it was abandoned and the Triton cost $25 million.

There is no question but that adequate defense nowadays costs a breathtaking amount of money and it must be expected that of the billions voted a good deal of the money has to be written off for things tried that didn't jell.

Still, with due allowance for all of that it is also true that inter-service rivalry is prompting one branch to beat another to beat another to the draw where co-operation would be better than competition. It is also true that extensive expenditures for bases or production plants for weapons or materials that have not yet demonstrated their practicability is wasteful.

National defense is a cherished thing. But it is no sacred cow. Some of these great losses are compensable in that even in failure they developed new and useful knowledge, but beyond such a point the spenders of the money are in an indefensible position.

Two-Sided Story

The Wall Street Journal, in an editorial, made it quite plain without actually saying so that it feels some aspects of foreign aid are a liability for American business. To show this, they cite an unproven report that American foreign aid has gone into the build-up of Renault and Fiat automobile factories in France and Italy.

While the governments of both these nations assisted in the build-up of these factories, there is still no proof that foreign aid funds went directly for this purpose. Thus, it is going a long way around the bush to say that foreign aid has resulted in placing these foreign cars in the U.S. market in competition to American-made cars.

It is a little like saying that Mr. A murdered Mr. C because A loaned money to Mr. B who happened to spend the money on a gun with which to shoot Mr. C. However, even granting some bit of logic to such reasoning, there is the side of the story the Journal failed to talk about in its editorial.

Another arm of this country's foreign aid or over-all Mutual Security program is the Export-Import bank of which Nebraska's and Lincoln's Sam Waugh is president. This federal agency is authorized to make loans, having some "reasonable" assurance of repayment, to other nations. President Eisenhower is on record as being in favor of expansion of the lending power of the bank.

The bank has just loaned the United Arab Republic $12 million for the purchase of 58 diesel electric locomotives from General Motors Corp. This, too, is money put up by U.S. taxpayers through Uncle Sam and in this case has resulted in a direct bonanza for General Motors. We doubt that the Renault-Fiat deal, if it has any substance in fact, has been of any more loss to the U.S. auto industry than the UAR deal has been of benefit to General Motors. This seems to leave the score on foreign aid even, at worst.

Now That We Are Fifty

Taking Hawaii into the Union as the fiftieth state turned out to be a pleasant and beneficial experience.

It was hard to find any detractors on the day of statehood, and one is caused to wonder what became of them, because they were successful during several terms of Congress in deferring Hawaii's just case. They got away with arguments which were at best specious. One of them insisted that Hawaii didn't have a large enough population.

Since Deleware scored a historic first in 1787 by beating Pennsylvania and New Jersey to the pen which signed the statehood roster, only two new coming states exceeded in population that of Hawaii. It was Oklahoma which became the 46th state in 1907. It had 1,414,000 citizens. Virginia in 1778 came in with 746,610. Hawaii, with 640,000, makes a convincing show of size when it is considered Tennessee had but 35,691, California 92,597 and Illinois 55,211.

Nebraska was the 37th state and made a good showing coming into the union with 122,933.

The Hawaiian islands were known to the western world nine years before Deleware became the first of the United States. History says the islands are discovered in 1778 by the British explorer, Capt. James Cook. This, of course shows how self-centered is history. Hawaii might have been hot news to Capt. Cook, but the Hawaiians knew all about their country for ages and ages before they discovered Capt. Cook. They even had a state motto which neither Great Britain nor the preceding 49 states of the Union have ever been able to match. It is, "Ua Mau Ke Ea O Ka Aina I Ka Pono." The average American could no more work that out than he could build a television set from the wiring diagram pasted on the backside. But any Hawaiian will tell you that it means, "The life of the land is preserved in righteousness."

Didn't Tell All

Not so long ago a national case was made against the farm price support program because it provided massive subsidies to large corporate farming. Payments over $100,000 were cited.

Now that the dust has settled it is revealed that less than one per cent of the 830,000 Great Plains farm units are corporately operated and that 43 per cent of all the land is of the husband and wife, family sized farm variety. Where large payments were made, consistent with the size of the operation, a substantial amount was recovered in the form of corporation, federal income and local taxes.

U.S. Steel Benefits From Dredging Job

WASHINGTON — A new chapter has just been revealed in the operation of the giant U.S. Steel Corporation, which while netting a record quarter of a billion dollars profit in the first six months of the year, has refused to pay proportionate school taxes in Morrisville, Pa., and tried to oppose more taxes for school purposes in Alabama.

The new chapter pertains to the manner in which U.S. Steel got Uncle Sam to dredge the Delaware river to a 40-foot depth up to the Fairless plant at Morrisville. Army Engineers testified that one company only would benefit by the deepened channel—U.S. Steel. Various congressmen opposed this gift of $91,738,000 to U.S. Steel. Among the most vigorous of all its opponents was Congressman Mike Kirwan, Democrat of Ohio. He made speech after speech opposing the giveaway.

Then suddenly Ben Fairless, head of U.S. Steel and the man for whom the Fairless plant is named, came to see Mike Kirwan. Suddenly also Michael J. Kirwan, Jr., was given a job with U.S. Steel. After that congressman Kirwan's opposition melted. He gave his blessing to the $91,738,000 for U.S. Steel.

Significantly, when U.S. Steel wanted to dredge the Orinoco River in Venezuela in order to take ore boats upstream, it paid for the dredging itself. But when it came to dredging an American river, the Delaware, U.S. Steel got the Eisenhower administration — with strong though related support from one key Democratic congressman — to pay for it.

Note: Young Mike Kirwan is still working for U.S. Steel and has had some nice raises. He says he plans to stay there all his life.

The Army Engineers testified that the only one company who will get 100 per cent benefit out of this is the United States Steel Corp. Up on the St. Lawrence River we are only paying $100,000,000 to complete a seaway 105 miles long. They have 65 seaports on the Great Lakes and they have 59,000,000 tons awaiting shipment. But on this waterway, they will only ship 30,000,000 tons and it is costing as much money to construct that 30 to 40 miles of channel as it is costing to build the St. Lawrence Seaway.

* * *

While the Democratic party has been talking about cracking down on big business, its representatives in Congress have been doing exactly the opposite. Most recent public demonstration was the Democratic vote to retain the "George Humphrey Amendment" which gives a 4 per cent tax preferential to those who derive income from the stock market.

DORIS FLEESON

Congress Most Wants To Adjourn

WASHINGTON — Both President Eisenhower and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson have lists of "must" legislation before adjournment of Congress, but a suddenly restive House is turning a deaf ear.

What the revived conservative coalition of the House wants is a labor bill closely resembling the astringent measure it put over two weeks ago. If the Senate-House conferees produce it, the coalition will whoop it through and pack its bags for the trip home.

Most members of this informal alliance of Republicans and southern Democrats do not care about the President's "sound" civil rights bill, his "revised" housing bill and "something on wheat." They are uneasy about an interest rate law, the Democrats in particular fearing any change in their party's historic low-interest-rate position.

They do want enough on the pay-as-you-go road bill so that construction in their districts will not stop, even though it may be slowed down. They couldn't care less about foreign aid.

* * *

It seems to be their view that if they have a real labor reform bill under their belts, all the rest will be forgiven. Besides, they aren't sure which way the ball will bounce on the Khrushchev visit and hence, they say, a really prudent man will be in his particular Pocatello, siding with his constituents, when the Soviet premier arrives.

When the House is in this frame of mind, veterans of that large body are agreed that little can be done about it. They add that it is safer not to try than to risk getting something nobody can live with.

Senator Johnson is one of the 40 senators who served a House apprenticeship, many of them in key positions. This two-fifths of the Senate does not need any education in the problem it poses for the Texan, whose own legislative program needs a number of finishing touches.

The one he most wants is civil rights so as to get it out of the way before the presidential campaign begins. But even though he has lowered his sights and will be content with Senate passage only, the prospects are gloomy. A resolution to extend the present civil rights commission for two years is talked of as a possible compromise.

Liberal Republicans do not like this solution, viewing it as dangerous to their party as well as to themselves. None of this group has the presidential aspirations which spur so many Democratic senators into action on such matters, but they are aware of the potency of civil rights in the make-or-break presidential states.

* * *

Congressional tempers have not been improved by word from the new budget discussions that 1960-61 spending, despite all the talk about economy, will be up again, possibly reaching 80 billions. With the prolonged steel strike imperiling tax revenues, this is dark news.

What it suggests is that the next session again may be dominated by argument over who are the spenders. And it is simply a fact that Congress really does not like the spending issue and prefers to err on the side of generosity in the months before it again faces the voters.

MARQUIS CHILDS

Hard Assignment For President

WASHINGTON — The venture in personal diplomacy on which President Eisenhower is setting out on Wednesday has the look at first glance of a pleasant goodwill junket. With an attendant train of reporters it has some resemblance to a campaign tour to the outlying provinces of the President's constituency.

But it must in hard fact be much more than that if it is not to provide merely a surface gloss concealing fairly deep-seated trouble. Both in Germany, which is the President's first stop, and in France, which is last on the schedule, the need is not for pleasant generalities but for plain speaking.

The President had not intended in the beginning to go to Bonn at all. He said privately that he thought it would be a mistake to go there in view of the imminent visit of Premier Khrushchev to this country. A needless irritant to the Russians was the way he put it.

He had thought that Chancellor Konrad Adenauer would come either to Paris or London and meet him there. But Adenauer was not playing it that way. He wanted the President to come to his Capital and in the end he had his way, as he has the habit of doing.

* * *

The President, however, is also a stubborn man. Those close to the exchange between Bonn and Washington say that at first he flatly refused to alter his plans to make it possible to spend a day in the West German Capital. Finally, a close associate of the late John Foster Dulles used his influence to persuade the President that it would be taken as a slight by the Germans themselves if he did not go to Bonn.

He will have with him Secretary of State Christian Herter, who had his own experience with the chancellor in the course of a one-day call just before the first round of the Geneva talks. Herter had a luncheon meeting with the 83-year-old Adenauer that lasted for two hours. The chancellor talked almost without interruption for an hour and 45 minutes, on Germany, Russia and Premier Khrushchev, with imperative need to hold a summit conference and the price the West should extract for such a meeting.

* * *

The President will speak with more authority and he should, therefore, have a better opportunity to present the American viewpoint. If there seems any likelihood that Khrushchev in the course of his American visit will raise the idea of a guaranteed corridor of access between West Germany and West Berlin, in return for ending the military occupation of that city, it would be well to canvass this possibility with Adenauer.

The corridor concept has been the subject of widespread diplomatic speculation. The President is said to have been attracted by its possibilities as a breakthrough in the Berlin situation.

In President Charles De Gaulle of France the American president will find an interlocutor even more difficult than the German chancellor. The United States is being asked by France to underwrite the entire French position in Algeria. To do that would mean the alienation of most of the African and middle eastern nations.

* * *

The issue will come up in acute form before the United Nations General Assembly and perhaps also before the Security Council next month. A resolution of censure failed by only one vote last year, with the French refusing to take any part in the debate on the lofty ground that Algeria was an integral part of France and none of the U.N.'s business. The vote is virtually certain to go against the French this time, if only because Cuba and Venezuela have new governments with a changed position on the Algerian war.

This is only the stickiest of the many sticky points to be raised in the three days of talks between the two generals out of World War II, each of whom is now head of state. De Gaulle wants France to have possession of nuclear warheads at first hand and not, as American law presently provides, through the ultimate sanction of the American president. Because the French will not accept atomic weapons on any other terms, the decision was taken by NATO to move American bomber squadrons out of France and station them in Britain and Germany.

One can imagine this dialogue, each general shrouded in his own version of the glory of the past, speaking not merely different languages but from a wholly different grasp of the present and the future. By contrast, the interlude in England will be pure hands-across-the-sea, an essay in goodwill being astutely planned by the Macmillan government. For President Eisenhower it will be a welcome interlude between Bonn and Paris.

Orphan Calf

Lincoln, Neb.

With some changes, Gertrude Charny's article, "A Motorist's Prayer," (August 20 Star) may be rewritten in rhyme while retaining much of the exact language and all of the sentiment of the original. For example:

All still it lay, beside the road—
What once had been a cow,
While near it stood a little one—
An orphaned baby now.

And this small waif leaned helpless head
Against its mother's face,
And licked it, asking a response
Of which there was no trace.

A piteous sight, this babe bereaved,
With no one to sustain
A grieving mite struck suddenly
With hunger, fear and pain.

And we the mightier race, speed on,
And leave this gory flesh,
And pass to views of greens and blues;
Of country fair and fresh.

Please God, may never flesh nor blood
Be found upon my wheels,
Though I must drive at slower speed
Than other automobiles.

Thank You

Lincoln, Neb.

The Executive Club was delighted with the excellent coverage that The Star afforded our recent "Kid Fun Day" at Capitol Beach. The board of directors and I were pleased with the gracious co-operation in publicizing our annual event in behalf of our young guests from Lincoln orphanages and other institutions, and we want to express our appreciation for the valuable space for the coverage. Our thanks not only in behalf of the Executive Club but in behalf of the children, as well.

Salary Raises

North Loup, Neb.

Our shameful neglect by the Republican one-horse legislature of Nebraska is almost a crime. They raised the salaries of the white-collar officials, but not a cent for the old-age group.

Are they blind, deaf and dumb? Voters, let's see to it that these legislators are not returned to office. The recipients of salary raises should donate such raises to the old age pension fund.

Fringe Benefits

Lincoln, Neb.

The thing that labor calls "fringe benefits" is becoming a disease. It is appearing among all classes of labor. It is found in the university student, gifted with the knowledge of handling plaster of paris, who takes his young wife along as a "helper" and all she does is to sit and read or else visit with the woman of the house. When the student puts in his bill for two hours of work, it is in the sum of $11 as provided for in the union schedule.

The disease is going its best when a workman lists his 11-year-old son as a "helper" because he drives his father to work in a Buick automobile. Both the father and son are challenging the state law in the matter.

There were the three 12-year-old boys who asked an old fellow for a job at 30 cents an hour, and wound up telling the employer that inasmuch as they did their work on Saturday, the union schedule called for time and a half, and 45 cents an hour was due them.

That kind of a disease is not "fringe benefits." It is just plain grafting. It is as much a holdup as putting a gun in an employer's face to get his money.

No Escape

Beatrice, Neb.

There is great emphasis now on the building and stocking of underground shelters to escape the fall-out and horrors of a bombing attack which might be made at night or in the early morning hours by suicide planes following the guiding lights of the cities. It goes without saying that electricity and all forms of power and lighting would be snuffed out at once. Fires and explosions that would be an aftermath would make living tombs for those able to get to their shelters. It is doubtful if the work of mere man could withstand or escape from the rubble and debris that would be scattered over the ground where buildings had stood. Very few would ever be able to get out of their living tombs.

In the book, "Looking Backward in the 18th Century," the author sketches the story of a man troubled with sleeplessness who constructed a noise-proof room in the basement of his house where he could go when his spells came on. Only his family knew of it. After he had retired one night, the house caught fire killing his family and supposedly getting him, too. Many years later in digging the basement deeper, they found his hide-out from which he emerged into a changed and unknown world into which he couldn't fit.

The only difference between that story and a bombing attack is that the man-made shelters of today would be covered so deep that no one could ever get out and the result would be a horrible slow death. A small example of our helplessness was New York City when only a small section was blacked out. Also the earthquake in Montana.

THE SHARERS

I count the many friends I've had,
The happy groups that I have lost,
And, looking back, it seems too bad
How much a fortune made can cost.

The way uphill is steep and grim
And at the top is loneliness.
A man must take his friends with him
To share a little his success.

Wedding On Tuesday

MRS. ROBERT CURTISS MINOR

With only members of the family attending the ceremony, the marriage of Miss Martha Josephine Danielson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce Danielson, to Robert Curtiss Minor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oakley Minor of Rochester, N.Y., took place on Tuesday evening, Aug. 25, at the home of the bride's parents. The 7 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Thomas C. Dick before the living room fireplace which was screened with magnolia leaves, and ornamented with cathedral candles, in seven-branched candelabra, and white fujii chrysanthemums.

Miss Janet Danielson, as her sister's maid of honor and only attendant, appeared in a frock of white lace over pink taffeta, with pink chiffon fashioning a contour drape at the neckline. Her flowers were pink elfe roses.

Grant Southard of Spencerport, N.Y. served as best man, and directing the guests was Edwin Winnett Orr of Denver, Colo.

For the ceremony the bride chose a gown of white taffeta. French Alencon lace was smoothed over the elongated bodice to create a sabrina neckline and brief sleeves. The voluminous, bell-shaped skirt extended into a chapel train. A Regency crown held in place her illusion veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of orchids.

Following a reception at the University Club, Mr. Minor and his bride left for a honeymoon trip after which they will reside in Berlin, N.Y.

The bride attended the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, and was graduated from Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N.Y. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, professional music sorority. Mr. Minor was graduated from the State University of New York Teachers College at Brockport, and is a member of Kappa Delta Pi.

Around About—And Here And There

—Let's take a look at the town and see who around and about is doing what, here and there—Of course you know that the marriage of Miss Martha Danielson to Robert Curtiss Minor took place last evening, but you may be wondering if some names so familiar to Lincoln people were in the wedding guest book—They were.

Here for the ceremony were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. H. W. Orr of Grinnell, Ia., formerly of Lincoln; her aunt and cousin, Mrs. Keith Sheldon and Miss Allison Sheldon of Colorado Springs; another aunt, Mrs. Phillip Klein and her son, Douglas, of State College, Pa., Edwin W. Orr, of Denver.

Mr. Minor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oakley Minor, and Grant Southard who served as best man, arrived on Monday from Rochester, N.Y., and also coming from New York were Mr. Minor's cousin, Mrs. Edward Fauth, and Mr. Fauth, of Corfu.

* * *

—We hear that Dr. and Mrs. Earl Vernon Wiedman will be celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary on Friday—but we also discovered that the wedding anniversary, though important, shares honors with another anniversary — Dr. Wiedman's completion of 40 years of medical service in Lancaster County.

And in case you hadn't heard we think we should tell you that Mrs. Wiedman has written a song "A Home in Nebraska," and the dedication on the cover is most interesting. It says:

"I dedicate this — a song of home in Nebraska, to Earl Vernon Wiedman, M.D. whose grandfather, Jacob Columbus Andrews, and his wife, Elizabeth Mapes Andrews, came to Nebraska in 1868—broke the sod with oxen and lived in a sod house."

* * *

—After a look at our calendar for the week we have come to the conclusion that Miss Ann Truman, whose marriage to Lt. Roderic J. O'Donnell will take place on Saturday, is a very busy bride-elect.

Last Saturday, for instance, Miss Truman was an honoree when Mrs. D. L. Gross was a luncheon hostess at the University Club.

And yesterday there were two parties for the soon-to-be bride—the first was a luncheon for which Mrs. P. J. Meehan was hostess at the University Club. Luncheon places were arranged for eight, and Miss Truman was presented with a hostess gift.

* * *

—On Tuesday evening Miss Truman and her fiance shared honors when Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hoppe, Jr., were a dinner host and hostess at the Lincoln Country Club. Out of town guests at the party were the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Truman of Omaha.

* * *

—Complimenting Miss Truman and Lt. O'Donnell this evening will be Miss Anne Desmond, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Desmond, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fraizer who have invited guests for a canape supper at the Lincoln Country Club.

Dear Abby . . .

Morals Are Showing!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I'd like your help in convincing my husband that we are living in a modern world. We aren't kids. We are in our forties and have been married 18 years. I don't neglect the kids (or him) and see nothing wrong with an "affair" as long as nobody is hurt. I don't want a divorce. I just want to go on as I have been. Being a woman, you should understand.

AVERAGE WIFE

DEAR AVERAGE: I "understand" but I disagree. Women who see "nothing wrong" with an "affair" need a dog license—not a marriage license.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I love my sister very much. She has been married to a prince of a man for twelve years and they have two children. Her husband was injured on his job and he is in a wheel chair, paralyzed from the waist down. She went to work to help out and met another man (her boss) and fell in love with him.

She is presently divorcing her husband to marry the other man. I do not approve of what she is doing, but she is still my sister. My husband says he will never speak to her again. He refuses to meet her fiance. This is making it hard on me. Do you think I should break off relations with my sister because of the way my husband feels? Why shouldn't we be friendly with her and her new husband? TORN

DEAR TORN: If you want to be friendly with your sister and her new husband, you have a right to, but your husband has the right to ignore them. Your sister has broken a sacred vow to "love and cherish in sickness and in health," etc. You might still "love" your sister, but you surely can't respect her.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: Tell that little fuss budget who wants everything he eats served on separate dishes, he will have to wash the dishes himself. I'll bet he starts eating off one plate soon.

I once had a small visitor years ago who used to wet her bed the first few nights. After I made her wash her own sheets and hang them out to dry a couple of times, she managed to stay dry. It makes a difference when they have to do the work themselves.

MOTHER OF FOUR

DEAR MOTHER: Bed-wetters should not be dealt with in the same manner as "fuss-budgets" who want their food served on separate plates. A bed-wetter is usually the innocent victim of an act over which he has no control.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I am engaged to marry a boy who works on the second shift. He is 25 and I am 21. He never sees me on a Saturday night. He tells me he is working but he will not give me any proof. Like showing his check stubs. He complains about not having any money from one paycheck to another, but if he works on Saturdays he should get time and a half.

Am I wrong in wanting proof that he is not lying? What should I do?

WANTING PROOF

DEAR WANTING: Something is fishy! A truthful man could easily prove his statements. Get this Romeo out of the moonlight and take a good look at him in the daylight before you promise to spend the rest of your life with him.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, enclose a self-addressed envelope.

Toastmistress

At their meeting held on Monday evening the Lincoln Toastmistress Club presented the officers and the various committee chairmen who spoke briefly on their duties and responsibilities.

Mrs. Harry Gaylor, president of the organization, served as Toastmistress, and after highlighting the responsibilities of her office she introduced those who participated in the evening's program.

Mrs. Eleanor Maxerll assigned three impromptu discussion topics which were based on current news stories of world events, and to which Miss Flora Henkleman, Miss Harriet Turner and Miss Ann Gustafson, responded.

Guests of the club, which will hold its next meeting on Sept. 14, were Miss Joan Norman and Mrs. Wallace Peterson.

Hugenot Society To Meet

IN SUBURBIA

Late summer vacationers, newcomers and visitors spark our suburban news high lights this Wednesday morning.

COUNTRY CLUB MANOR

Understand that Mr. and Mrs. David Hubbell will be honored at a farewell party next Monday evening. The no-host affair will be given by Mr. Hubbell's business associates, and will be held at the Legionnaire Club.

The Hubbell family will be leaving Lincoln next month to make their new home in Ft. Collins, Colo.

Home from a two week vacation trip are Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Pierson, Jr., and their daughter, Patti. The Piersons spent their holiday in Colorado Springs, Grand Lake and Estes Park.

COUNTRY CLUB TERRACE

Visitors in the suburb last week were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin and their son, Ronan, of Washington, D.C. The Lincoln guests were visitors at the home of Mr. Martin's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Carlson.

Last week end the Carlsons, their daughter, Darci, and the Martin family motored to Fonda, Ia., to visit Mrs. Carlson's and Mr. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin.

The Carlson family returned home on Sunday.

Introductions are in order this morning as Capt. and Mrs. Charles Ozmore moved to Country Club Terrace two weeks ago. The couple, whose new address is 2510 Woods Blvd., have one daughter, ten year-old Marie.

Capt. and Mrs. Ozmore came to Lincoln from Las Vegas where Capt. Ozmore served a four and a half-year tour of duty at Nellis Air Force Base.

INDIAN VILLAGE

A newcomer to the bassinet set in the suburb is Michael Thomas Humphrey, son of Capt. and Mrs. James Humphrey, who was born at Lincoln General Hospital on Friday, Aug. 21. Michael has one brother, Andy.

His paternal grandmother is Mrs. Florence Humphrey of Miami, Fla., and Arthur Thomas of Lincoln is the maternal grandfather.

The welcome mat is out this morning for some new residents in Indian Hills. They are Lt. Col. and Mrs. LeRoy G. Russell, and they are now living at 1611 Sioux, in the home formerly occupied by Maj. and Mrs. Tom Miller.

The Russell's have a daughter, Lynn, who is ten years old. They formerly lived in Tokyo, Japan, where Lt. Col. Russell was stationed.

School Of Instruction

DR. STEVEN WATKINS

MRS. EBER E. TICE

The annual School of Instruction sponsored by the Lincoln Council of Parents and Teachers will be held on Thursday morning, Sept. 3, at the Public School Administration Bldg.

Planned each year as an instructional workshop for all PTA officers and chairmen in the city, the program will be opened at 9 o'clock with an address by Dr. Steven N. Watkins, superintendent of Lincoln Schools.

Mrs. Eber E. Tice, first vice president of the council, will preside in the absence from the city of Mrs. W. C. Meierhenry, council president.

Following the joint meeting, the committee chairmen and officers of the more than 30 local PTA units in the city will attend group workshops beginning at 10 o'clock, and to be moderated by the PTA Council chairmen. The program will conclude at noon.

Other council officers include Franklin Christensen, second vice president; Mrs. Marvin Schellpeper, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Thompson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Howard Spahnle, treasurer; and Mrs. Roland Haskins, auditor.

Impressions Of Manila

EDITOR'S NOTE—In her letter to the Lincoln Star, Mrs. William Hasebroock of West Point gives her impressions of Manila visited by the 160 American Club women attending the first Mid-Asian Conference of Federated Women's Clubs.

This tour has been particularly blessed with good weather. A torrential deluge fell in Manila two days before our arrival. It poured for only an hour, but six inches of rain came down and flooded parts of the city. However, with the heat of the sun and the great need for moisture, the water quickly sank in or ran off and left a clean clear city and sky.

A few clouds would be a little welcome when you are out in the sun. In this tropical setting, it is hot, there is no denying; but on a few occasions, I have seen it hotter in Nebraska and also far more humid.

Sunday morning we attended two church services. At the Union Church, the Minister extended greetings to members of the GFWC worshipping with them and gave additional evidence of the high regard with which these groups are held in the Islands because of the outstanding work they accomplished following the occupation.

After that inspirational service in an impressive building of recent construction, we hurried to the Cathedral for the 11 o'clock service. The building is of special interest because only the front wall was left standing after the war. The U.S. forces, with their several warships in the Bay, had to destroy it since the Japanese were using it as a storehouse for their munitions.

The Spanish Government assisted this Diocese in the rebuilding and today they have a large beautiful construction on simple lines which clearly shows the old facade and the new sanctuary. Local people are quick to tell you it isn't as elegant as the old Cathedral with its centuries-old statuary and pure gold trim. Again the Archbishop welcomes the several members of the GFWC who had come to the city to take part in the first Asian Conference of Women's Clubs.

Delegates from other countries are beginning to arrive and the attractiveness of their costumes, their mannerisms, and their speech, all in English with various accents, and color and interest to the growing assembly by the hour.

In the evening a special honor was given to Miss Chloe Gifford, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. The honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities was conferred upon her with all the proper ceremony of a college of higher education. The program started at six o'clock in the evening. The little 87-year-old president, Miss Carmen de Luna, was seated upon the gayly-decorated stage, and it was interesting to us in the front row to observe her practicing her comments to be given in English.

A buffet dinner of Philippine food, served in the court of the college, was the courtesy of Dr. Concepcion A. Aguila, a teacher in this institution and the awardee of the 1958 GFWC "Teacher of the Year" honor.

We are much impressed with the generous hospitality of these friendly people. There is nothing too much for them to do for one's comfort, and their genuine welcome is expressed in every gesture. The beauty of their costumes intrigues one constantly. The sights in and around Manila are worth one's efforts also.

There are several active volcanoes on the Islands. Mayon volcano has a more symmetrical cone than Mount Fuji and is periodically active. One of the most interesting is Taal Volcano, which is ingeniously situated. At the top of a mountain is a lake, inside the lake is an island, on the island is the volcano with a lake in its cone. It is the lowest active volcano in the world and gives you an eerie feeling in its resort surroundings.

Out in the Bay lies the shadow of Corregidor Island and the Bataan Peninsula. In the day time they seem to be mere outlines, but the atmosphere clears at dusk and vivid memories of the tragedies experienced in that area are brought back to us all.

Upped School, Pool Use Fees 'Represent Actual Costs Only'

By Virgil Falloon

Rental fees for Lincoln school buildings and swimming pools were adjusted to current "out-of-pocket" costs by the Board of Education Tuesday.

Dr. Steven N. Watkins, school superintendent, and Rudy Bauer, assistant superintendent for buildings and grounds, said the new fee schedule reflects only the actual cost of heat and light and additional custodial hours during the rental use periods.

For use of the Public School Activities Building, the Board adopted a $60 fee for use of the building for 4 hours or less with no admission charged and $75 with the use of showers or dressing rooms.

The fee will be $100 if an admission of 35 cents or under is charged and $150 if the admission charged does not exceed 75 cents per person.

No Charge

The Board continued the policy of no charge to the Red Cross for use of school swimming pools for instruction and testing during the regular school year, but established a $4.65 per hour charge for use of the pools during the summer months when the schools are closed.

For university or other groups, eligible to use the school pools, the fee was increased from $3.50 to $5 per hour for either men's or women's groups and from $5 to $9 per hour for mixed groups. On a two-hour basis, the charge will be $14 for mixed groups and $9 for a non-mixed group.

Dr. Watkins said the non-school use of the swimming pools had cost an estimated $3,900 during the past year as compared with the $2,700 rental revenue and the new schedule would meet "out-of-pocket" costs.

Also the board as a policy matter will require groups to secure a permit one week in advance of date of requested use to permit a reasonable time for processing requests.

For use of school auditoriums for rehearsals, the fees were increased to $10 and $20 depending upon admission rate. Also any organization using school building space for square dances, will be required to reimburse the cost of custodial service and operation.

Even with the new schedule, Dr. Watkins estimated the use of the buildings for youth activities for which no charge is made would still run about $3,500.

Less To Heat

As a sidelight to the cost study, Dr. Watkins reported that one-story schools cost less to heat and build than multiple-story schools.

He said that the one-story Culler school, having the same square-foot space as multiple-story Dawes school, cost 10 cents less per square foot to build.

Also he reported that one-story Culler heating cost was $75 less than multiple-story Dawes.

Dr. Watkins cited these comparable costs because of some public belief to the contrary.

School Lunch Workers To Get 5c Pay Raise

The Board of Education Tuesday approved a 5-cent-an-hour increase for all school lunchroom workers for the 1959-60 school year in addition to the yearly increments of 2½ cents per hour.

No tax funds are involved in the wage boosts amounting to $10,000 for the overall raise and $5,000 for the increments, according to Dr. Steven N. Watkins, school superintendent.

Simultanously, the Board increased the school lunch price to 30 cents from 25 cents with a similar adjustment in a la carte dishes effective the second semester.

School officials said the adjustment of lunch prices, which have remained the same for over 10 years, was needed to cover salary increases, but not until the second semester.

Esther Eisenbarth, general manager of the lunchroom program, said the new salary schedules were needed to obtain lunchroom personnel and were in line with wages paid elsewhere for this work.

Pay Schedule

The new hourly wage schedule ranges from $1.05 to $1.35 for lunchroom managers; 80 cents to $1.10 for assistant managers; 75 to 90 cents for lunchroom assistants and substitutes, and 55 cents for student cashiers.

The board was informed the lunchroom revenue defrays the out-of-pocket expense for food and wages and does not include the cost of capital items, such as buildings and equipments.

In other action, the board approved an increase to $2 for photographs for high school annuals.

Lincoln photographers, noting the former price of $1 had been in effect for 30 or 40 years, said the increase was needed to meet present costs.

Radio Club

After a policy discussion, the board unanimously agreed to neither endorse nor reject a proposal by radio station KLIN to form a "radio club" of high school students interested in radio careers.

The proposed Hi-Lin Club would provide experience in station management, writing, announcing and advertising sales and would handle a two-hour broadcast segment on Saturdays.

"While there are many commendable projects that come along," Board President Robert Venner said, "it is the school board's policy not to endorse activities containing a commercial element."

While the board could not officially endorse the activity, several board members unofficially expressed hope that interested students would participate.

All Board members were present except Mrs. Roscoe Hill and Robert Ammon.

Mansion To Get Own Flagpole

Nebraska's new governor's mansion will soon have its own flagpole.

Gov. Ralph Brooks said the Central Electric and Gas Co. of Lincoln has offered to install the pole as a gift. It will be located in a grassed area in front of the mansion.

Col. L. D. Densmore, Gas Company general manager, said architects are drawing up the plans and the installation will be in keeping with the mansion architecture.

No Contest Plea In Grand Larceny

Howard L. Jackson of 2325 No. 48th pleaded nolo contendere (no contest) to a grand larceny charge Tuesday in Lancaster District Court.

Judge Paul White found him guilty and deferred sentencing pending an investigation of the case by the Adult Probation Office and committed Jackson to County Jail.

Jackson, 29, is charged with the theft of more than $100 worth of beer from the Wilson Distributing Co. at 544 J where he formerly worked as a route driver. Police said Jackson took about 90 cases of beer between March and July and sold most of them to friends.

He earlier had pleaded innocent to the charge in County Court.

There Went The Crop

Calgary, Alta. (AP) — Greenhouse owner Roy Allan had a messy day. He checked his tomato crop at nearby Bowness, found two ripe fruits and put them in his truck. A hail storm struck and destroyed the greenhouse and contents. He surveyed the damage and resignedly mounted the truck, sitting on the two ripe remnants.

8 Polio Cases Put State's Total At 88

Eight more cases of polio were reported to the State Health Dept. during the last week, bringing the state total to 88 cases for the year, compared to 10 at this time last year. Of these cases, 25 are from Lancaster County, or 28%, officials said.

The number of polio cases from Lancaster County recorded on the state rolls has reached the current total for the county. Officials explain that there is often a lag in reporting cases to the department. At this time last year, Lancaster County had reported only one polio case.

Six of the 8 newly-reported cases were non-paralytic and two were paralytic cases. Five of the 8 cases reported this week were from Lancaster County, officials noted.

Paralytic cases reported involved two Lancaster County women, each having no polio shots. Non-paralytic cases involved a Lancaster County woman with 4 shots, a Lancaster County man with two shots, and a Lancaster County boy with 4 shots. Other non-paralytic cases were from Saunders, Madison and Dodge Counties.

Morris Siegel, president of the Lancaster County Chapter of the National Foundation, said that Lincoln had no new polio cases Tuesday.

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

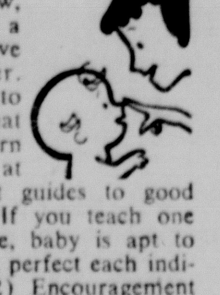
Got a night-owl baby who doesn't drift off into dreamland easily? Here's a suggestion that may help your honeybun keep his date with the sandman. Instead of a full evening meal all at once, you might try a split feeding. Cereal and strained food, say, at the usual time—custard and a bottle just before bedtime. Interim time can be playtime with dad. At tuck-in time baby should be nicely tummy-happy and pleasantly sleepy-headed.

•

Split feeding or full meal, Gerber Cottage Cheese with Pineapple has plenty of appetite appeal . . . and nutritional value galore. Mild cheese teams up with mellow fruit for the most delectable flavor imaginable. Nutritionally speaking, it's high in protein, offers a good source of calcium and B-vitamins. Comes in two of the very nicest textures: smoothly strained for small ones . . . a junior version for older tots. P.S. No need to refrigerate 'til after opening.

•

Developing idea. After baby passes the 6-month mark, he acquires new skills by the score. Now, besides being a mother you have to turn teacher. Important thing to remember is that a baby can learn just so much at one time. Best guides to good teaching: (1) If you teach one thing at a time, baby is apt to learn faster . . . perfect each individual skill. (2) Encouragement gets better results than urging. Good luck and good achievement rewards both of you.



•

Brand new refresher for baby, brimming with vitamin C. It's Gerber Strained Orange-Apple . . . a happy blend of sunny orange juice and mildly sweet apple juice . . . enriched with vitamin C. Like all good-tasting Gerber Juices, it's carefully pasteurized for baby's protection.

Kearney Married Student Housing Bids Approved

The State Normal Board accepted low bids Tuesday totaling $858,710 for construction of married students housing at Kearney State Teachers College.

The low bidder on the general contract was Hunter and Lundberg Construction Co., Manhattan, Kan., with a base bid of $631,680. The board accepted an alternate bid which added $4,220 making the total general contract bid $635,900.

Low on the mechanical contract was Arthur L. Hilberg, Kearney, with a bid of $165,210. The Holdrege Electrical Shop, Holdrege, was low on the electrical contract with a bid of $57,600.

Construction will be three two-story buildings containing 108 units of which 38 will be one-bedroom units and the rest efficiency units.

On Aug. 11 the board had accepted bids for construction of men and women's dormitories at Peru and on Aug. 18 bids were accepted on construction of a women's dormitory and married student housing at Chadron State Teachers College.

Still to be let on bids this year will be a student union at Peru, a student union at Chadron and men's and women's dormitories at Kearney.

All of the projects are financed by revenue bonds.

Urged To Aid Road By Tax

Gov. Ralph Brooks urged congressional leaders Tuesday to hike the federal gas tax, "if only on a limited basis," so as to provide continued financing for the Interstate Highway program.

Nebraska and the nation "view with dismay the continued failure to present an adequate financing proposal for continuation of the Interstate Highway program at the present level of construction," the Democratic chief executive said in telegrams directed to members of the House Ways and Means Committee and the Public Works Committee.

Nebraska is in "a particularly desperate position" because of past failure to make use of interstate funds as apportioned and because of its position "as the bridge state of the nation and hub of the world's largest livestock marketing area," the wires said.

'Must Face Reality'

"You and each member of your committee and of the Congress must face the reality that your search for a compromise is fruitless and that a federal gas tax increase, if only on a limited basis, is inescapable at these late moments of this session.

"The Fallon proposal, even though inadequate to maintain current construction and financing levels, nevertheless merits your personal support and would still permit those states who expect to impose state gas tax increases to use that source of revenue at the end of the two-year period."

Scottsbluff Death Is Ruled Suicide

Nebraska News

Gering, Neb. (AP) — Acting Scotts Bluff County Coroner Straight Townsend of Scottsbluff Tuesday said the Sunday death of Evelyn Garnier, 19, of Scottsbluff has been ruled a suicide.

The Garnier girl apparently jumped from a speeding car on Highway 86 two miles east of Gering.

The death was at first considered a traffic fatality.

Townsend also said the driver of the car, Roderick Prue, 21, of Scottsbluff was charged with drunk driving in connection with the incident. Authorities said Prue and the Garnier girl argued prior to when she jumped.

Prue pleaded innocent to the drunk driving charge. Preliminary hearing will be Sept. 2.

Aids Farmers

Columbus, Neb. (AP)—Elimination of the ceiling on the amount of the Federal Land Bank may loan to any one individual—a feature of the Farm Credit Act of 1959—will benefit ranchers and farmers in the Grand Plains area, Thomas A. Maxwell, Jr., president of the Federal Land Bank of Omaha, told a meeting of farm loan association officials Tuesday.

Stanton Delaplane's POSTCARD

This morning I was sitting in the bracing sun on the boardwalk at Deauville when a pretty blonde French girl got stung by a yellow jacket. (This is the apple country of France. It swarms with fruit wasps.)

She got stung right at the bikini line — way yonder. Or way down yonder, however you want to look at it. Anyway, it was painful and she let out a pretty little yip.

Well, the effect was startling. Waiters dropped their trays. And from all over the beach, gentlemen rushed up to help. They examined that girl in a way to make a medical school envious.

They extracted the sting. At least, that is what I think they did. I could hardly see. It was disgusting. Even mechanics were crowding around with pipe wrenches.

And there I was on the outskirts with my Band-Aid. Fighting to get through and saying: "Pardon, messieurs. Make way for the doctor!"

☆ ☆ ☆

The only reason I mention this is to show that even the French are not so blase about the bikini bathing suit.

I have been checking the bikini action — I have the waiter on the boardwalk fixed. He saves me a front-row table. "Early again, m'sieu," he says. "That is the best time."

I checked it out. This is not hard. For the Deauville beach is covered with bikinis. I mean there are a lot of bikinis. Actually the bikini hardly covers anything.

The bikini takes a good deal of wearing, however. It takes careful wearing. It is no Mother Hubbard that you slouch around in.

☆ ☆ ☆

The best bikini wearers are on the beach marked "Privee" and roped off. They sit under umbrellas with little tent sides. However, they do not fix these sides so you can look out to sea.

No, everything faces the boardwalk. From my table I look right at the bikini wearers. And they look right at me. It makes reporting like this easier.

Now. Are you with me? Okay. Now, the bikini wearer lies face down in the sand. With one hand, she reaches back and unsnaps the top piece.

This allows air to get at the little strip at the back.

Then, with both hands, she reaches down and rolls down the bikini! You heard me. She rolls down the bikini.

I would have laid 10-to-1 this could NOT be done. But it can.

It has been a long time since I rolled my own cigarettes. But that delicate bikini rolling brought it all back. She rolls down the bikini to — I don't know just how to explain this. But anyway, when she has finished rolling she had better not stand up suddenly.

☆ ☆ ☆

The lady who got stung by the wasp, fortunately, had unrolled her bikini and resnapped the top piece. She was standing up when the wasp strafed her.

She let out this painful little "yipe!" And like a gent, I rushed over to help her.

But my waiter tripped me. Then he handed me his tray while HE rushed over. And the only reason I am able to give details is because I had a sturdy chair. I stood on it.

The first time I came down here, the waiter (the one I have fixed with a lifetime pension and a trip around the world). The first time, he asked me:

"Are you looking for someone, M'sieu?"

I hardly knew how to answer. Because if I DID see someone I knew, for goodness sake I don't think I would recognize her. And I never forget a face.

Taipei, Formosa (AP) — Forty women employed by Formosa's state-owned railroad went into Taipei District Court Tuesday and applied for divorces.

The railroad administration has ruled that in the future no husband and wife may work for it. The decision was made in an economy drive.

The women who sought divorces want to continue working for the railroad.

Court officials said they could not grant the divorces because the husbands did not endorse the women's pleas.

Ruling On Taxes In Proceedings To Establish Heirs

There is no showing necessary as to listing of personal property for taxes or payment of personal property taxes in special proceedings to establish title of heirs, the attorney general ruled.

In an opinion for Antelope County Atty. Ralph S. Kryger, Neligh, the attorney general said the provisions of LB50 passed by the 1959 Legislature do not apply to the special proceedings to establish title of heirs.

The law requires the filing of certificates of the county assessor and statement of the county treasurer relating to the listing of personal property for taxation and the payment of taxes on personal property of an estate before the estate proceeding may be closed.

Discontinuance Of 3 Stations Okayed

The State Railway Commission authorized the Railway Express Agency and the Chicago and North Western Railway to discontinue three stations.

The Chicago and North Western was permitted to discontinue caretaker service and retire station facilities at Monowi and Verdel.

The Railway Express Agency was authorized to discontinue agency service at Arlington.

The Railway Express Agency also was authorized to increase less than carload rates by 25 cents per hundred pounds on intrastate traffic effective Sept. 1.

South Sioux City was authorized to construct an electric transmission line in Dakota County and the Omaha Public Power District was authorized to build a line in Sarpy County.

Crater Unfound

Moscow (AP) — A Soviet expedition has failed to find any crater dug by a giant meteorite in central Siberia 50 years ago, the Tass news agency reported Tuesday.

Tass said the Soviet Academy of Sciences expedition explored the entire area of timber felled by the famed meteorite bombardment of June 30, 1908, but was not able to find a crater. The felled timber covered a circular area 25 miles across.

This was the fifth expedition to study the explosion site.

EX-NEBRASKAN WILLS LAND TO STATE BLIND

The State of Nebraska has come into possession of 822 acres of farm land in Boone County and a store building in Albion, with proceeds earmarked for the benefit of the state's blind students.

The property was bequeathed by the late Frank D. Williams, an attorney who moved from Albion to California and who died about two years ago.

Under a final settlement of litigation with a son who held a life estate in the property, the state has gained immediate possession of the Nebraska property. Formal acceptance was made by Gov. Ralph Brooks.

Williams willed that proceeds from the bequest contribute to the expenses of poor and needy students at the School For Blind in Nebraska City, and contribute to the expenses of needy and worthy graduates who desire to continue their education upon graduation.

The attorney general's office advised the governor that the Nebraska property involved is worth between $70,000 and $80,000.

Caracas Plans Subway

Caracas, Venezuela (AP) — This oil capital plans a 4-year subway project to cost 185 million dollars. The city has tripled in size in 10 years to a poppulation estimated at 1,200,000 served — to the point of traffic paralysis—by 120,000 cars, buses and other vehicles. Subway work starts next March.

TO MY ADOPTED CHILD...

"I don't care what the experts say—if I had it to do over again, I'd never tell you that you were adopted. Perhaps the young man you were going to marry wouldn't have walked out when he discovered the truth. And perhaps the cruel facial twitch that took a psychiatrist so long to erase might never have made you suffer. I realize now our love could never shield you from the tactless questions and vicious remarks of others. The current issue of McCall's tells our story. I wanted it that way. If we can save one child a single heartache, your own struggle will not have been in vain. Maybe others like us will speak up once they read September McCall's."

Mississippi Elects Avid Court Foe

Victor Is Stout Segregationist

Jackson, Miss. (UPI)—Ross Barnett, a 60-year-old lawyer who advocates open defiance of U.S. Supreme Court desegregation rulings, won nomination Monday night as the Democratic candidate for governor of Mississippi.

This assures his election in the November general election.

Barnett, who argued throughout his campaign against "moderation" on the race issue, took the lead in the earliest returns. His margin over Lt. Gov. Carroll Gartin, 47, grew steadily as the reports rolled in.

His nomination came despite the considerable influence of outgoing Gov. J. P. Coleman, former Gov. Hugh White and most of the state's daily newspapers who endorsed Gartin.

Faubus Fan

Barnett, who often has expressed praise and admiration for the way Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus handled the school desegregation crisis in Little Rock, has pledged to close Mississippi schools rather than see them integrated. Gartin has made the same pledge.

Barnett pitched his campaign on charges that Coleman and Gartin were too "moderate" on the racial issue. Coleman is not eligible to succeed himself as governor but won a seat in the state legislature in the first primary earlier this month.

Mum On Lynching

The April lynching of a Negro rape suspect at Poplarville was not mentioned by either candidate, although a poster appeared at Poplarville last weekend asking voters to support Barnett because Coleman requested the FBI to investigate the case.

Charges and counter-charges filled the campaign. The AFL-CIO committee on political education said it favored Gartin over Barnett, and Barnett immediately claimed that Gartin was the favorite of labor racketeers and that organized labor was the tool of the NAACP.

COUNTY SCHOOL REORGANIZATION DEBATED. (Star Photo.)

Lancaster School Reorganization Proponents Plan Citizens Groups

By Nancy Shirley

Some 50 persons, representing 7 school districts in southern Lancaster County, held a lengthy meeting Tuesday evening, and decided that "something has to be done about our schools."

The meeting, originally scheduled to set up citizens committees in towns involved in a possible redistricting move, developed into a meeting of proponents of a possible consolidated high school. Such a school would combine southern Lancaster County high schools into a single unit with a valuation of about $10 million.

Dr. H. A. Evers of Hickman, chairman of a citizens committee there, outlined the work of that committee and suggested that "what we must do is see what we have and compare that with what we need."

'Benefit Us All'

"Then we might be able to work out a system of reorganization which would benefit us all," Dr. Evers said.

The Hickman committee, according to vice-chairman Ralph Harlan, has worked out a tentative work schedule which contrasts present educational standards, facilities and finance with what is needed "to prepare our children for a better way of life in the future."

George Morrison, superintendent of schools at Walton, said that he felt the Walton district had 3 choices:

—Eliminate its high school, and convert to a Class 1 District. "This would cost more," Morrison said, "and the education of your children wouldn't be your business any more."

—Build up present facilities and curriculum to produce a better educational system. "And this is too costly," Morrison stated.

The only feasible plan, he said, is "to reorganize and set up a program which would embrace a new district large enough to supply variety in education."

'Too Many, Too Small'

Lancaster County Supt. of Schools Glenn Turner, silent through most of the meeting, offered to "tell you what's wrong with your schools and all high schools in Lancaster County."

"You have too many schools, and they're too small. And that's the problem in the rest of the state," Turner continued.

At the conclusion of the meeting, those present had decided to set up citizens committees, fact-finding groups," in their respective towns, and had agreed on a 60-day time limit.

At that time, about the middle of October, a general meeting will be held to discuss the possibility of consolidation.

Presiding at the meeting was Jerome Warner of Waverly, chairman of the County Reorganization Committee. Other committee members present were Patrick L. O'Halloran of Route 3, Elmer L. Christiansen of Route 3, Thomas Hayman of Holland, Albert Francke of Walton, Owen C. Perry of Malcolm and Kenneth Weaver of Raymond.

Beatrice Council Takes Vote On Power Case

Beatrice, Neb. (AP)—The Beatrice City Council voted to withdraw from the Consumers-Norris Public Power District electric power case, but the vote lacked the needed majority.

The council voted 4-3 to withdraw from further defense in the case, one councilman being absent. However the law provides that such a step must have a majority vote of the elected members of the council. Hence a vote of 5-3 would have been necessary for passage.

District Court in Beatrice last spring decided against Consumers, which appealed to the State Supreme Court. Consumers is attempting to have a wholesale power contract between Norris and the city of Beatrice declared null and void.

The contract went into effect April 1, 1958. It had been approved by a split vote of the council.

New Move Made To Force A Civil Rights Showdown In Senate

Washington (AP) — A new move to force the civil rights battle to the Senate floor was made by two Northern Republicans, Sens. Jacob K. Javits (N) and Clifford P. Case (NJ).

They filed an unusual motion proposing that the Senate take civil rights legislation away from the Judiciary Committee, where it has been stalled for months under the leadership of Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss).

The motion could come up for limited Senate debate Wednesday. Approval would have to be by a majority of the 100 members, at least 51 affirmative votes.

However, such a vote would have to come during what the senators call the morning hour. This is a two-hour period usually devoted to introduction of bills and speeches.

Since the numerous opponents of civil rights legislation can talk their way right through the time allotted, chances of a vote are slim. This would result in the discharge motion being sent to the regular legislative calendar where it would be subject to the ordinary delaying tactics.

Javits and Case, in floor speeches, recalled that Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had frequently called for Senate action this session on civil rights.

With the session nearing adjournment, Javits said: "It has now become the duty of every senator to make every possible contribution he can toward securing floor action on civil rights."

Case conceded that discharge of a Senate committee from acting on legislation is unusual but said "the situation with regard to civil rights has become so critical that drastic action is necessary."

TEXAS PICKS UP RADIO SIGNALS SENT FROM ENGLAND AND BOUNCED OFF MOON

Austin, Tex. (AP)—Radio signals sent from England bounced off the moon and were received here.

Scientists in the Air Force-sponsored project immediately began speculating about an intercontinental moon-bounce television network.

The tests also aim at gathering information about the roughness of the moon's surface, said Dr. A. W. Straiton, director of the Electrical Engineering Research Laboratory at the University of Texas.

The laboratory is conducting the experiment under contract with the Air Force in co-operation with the Royal Radar Establishment at Malvern, Eng.

A Ministry of Supply spokesman in England said bleep-sounding signals sent out by the 45-foot radio telescope at Malvern were received clearly in Austin.

Straiton said the radar signals were received and measured here on a 28-foot parabolic receiving antenna between 11:55 p.m. and 1 a.m. (CST).

Last May messages in Morse code and speech were transmitted from England via the moon and picked up by the Air Force research center in Cambridge, Mass. Morse code signals transmitted clearly but human voice signals were distorted.

Straiton said "no present method permits transmission of trans-Atlantic live television programs and this is one of the possible applications of a moon bounce transmission system."

The assistant project director, John W. Gerhardt, said the test was the first time signals have been transmitted by moon reflection one-quarter of the way around the globe.

"It is further very interesting to note that the wave length is approximately the same used by Bell Telephone Co. in its microwave television links," Gerhardt said.

The radar impulses, each of five micro-seconds duration and two megawatts power, were transmitted at a rate of 250 pulses per second.

A spokesman at Wright Air Development Center near Dayton, Ohio, said the very high frequency, low-power signal was very much like standard type radar.

Straiton said the moon must be visible from both England and Texas for good contact. This condition exists for about 6 hours a day. A period shortly after full moon was chosen to permit better optical tracking of the moon.

Giant-Killer Chiefs Topple Demons Again

Iowa Prep Group Bars Officials

The Iowa State High School Athletic Association has barred the 5 officials who worked Sunday's Shrine Football Game from officiating Iowa high school athletics.

The Iowa association has a rule prohibiting exhibition games in which high school graduates participate.

The officials were informed of the Iowa action in advance of the Sunday game, according to C. C. Thompson, secretary of the Nebraska School Activities Association.

The Nebraska association has no rule similar to that of Iowa.

Several members of the Iowa association board of control along with Secretary Lyle T. Quinn were in Omaha for the game Saturday.

They met with members of the Nebraska board but it is understood the Iowans did not stay over when the game was postponed.

Iowa is in the area served by the Minneapolis Shrine Hospital. This means crippled children of Iowa will profit by the Sunday game which netted more than $50,000 for the hospitals.

The game officials received no pay for their Sunday chores. They are Richard Thompson, North Platte; Cliff Squires and Alex Cochrane Jr., both of Lincoln and Lloyd Berg and Jerry Dutcher, both of Omaha.

Ingemar Inks Pact For Title Rematch

. . . Date, Site Are Not Yet Determined

Goteborg, Sweden (AP) — A return bout contract estimated to be worth $1,000,000 apiece for heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson was signed here Tuesday after 3 days of negotiations.

It called for the fight to be held "sometime between March 1 and June 15 next year" at a site to be determined later.

Jack Dempsey, the old Manassa Mauler and former world champion, was credited with breaking down the icy chill of Johansson and his Swedish advisers in the lengthy discussions that began last Saturday.

Dempsey will promote the fight. The site and date were left up to him.

"All speculation concerning the date and site are meaningless," Dempsey said before Johansson affixed his signature to the dotted line.

However, with New York apparently out of consideration because of the suspension of the license of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., it was believed that Los Angeles had the inside track for the bout. Others thought it might go to Philadelphia, Houston or Miami. Johansson was said to have preferred Los Angeles with its 105,000-seat coliseum.

"I have accomplished what I came for," said Dempsey who headed the 6-man American delegation which flew here to confer with Johansson.

Johansson knocked out Patterson at New York's Yankee Stadium June 26 in the 3rd round. A return bout within 90 days was called for, and was tentatively set for New York next month.

However, Johansson balked because he had not received a financial accounting for the June 26 bout. The Swedish champion returned about 5 a.m. from a business trip to Boras in West Sweden. His fiance Birgit Lundgren drove Johansson's sport car.

After a couple of hours of rest, Johansson went into a closed session with the American party at a hotel. Later they went to the law office of Olof Ahlstedt, where the signing took place at 3:15 p.m. Johansson left immediately for the airport to catch a plane for London. He will observe the British Empire title bout tonight. At porthcawl, Wales between champion Henry Cooper of England and South Africa's Gawie De Klerk.

Vincent Vella, head of Rosensohn Enterprises, said Dempsey would promote the return bout. He also said his organization would be reorganized and renamed. Dempsey and his group are due back in New York today.

Warren, Wasdell Combine For Win; Governor To Be On Hand Tonight

By Don Bryant

Lincoln's Chiefs dealt the league-leading Des Moines another fit Tuesday night at Sherman Field, whipping the Demons, 5-1, before 663 fans.

Thus, in two nights the Chiefs have won as many games from the Demons as they managed in all the other previous meetings.

Tonight Lincoln will try for their second series win against Des Moines this year. The Chiefs took the opening set in Des Moines last spring, 2-1, then lost the next 8 games before winning the first game of Monday's twin bill.

Governor On Hand

Game time is 8 p.m., and for added entertainment, the Nebraska National Guard will stage a dandy show. With Skipper-In-Chief Gov. Ralph Brooks in command, the Guard—with other brass and some 350 members in attendance—will have a helicopter in action, as well as numerous other military displays.

The 43rd Army Band will supply the music for the show which starts at 7:40 p.m.

Joe Hoerner (1-0) will pitch for Lincoln, while Des Moines will have John Anderson (9-7) on the hill. The latter will be making his last appearance before returning to Birmingham, Ala. to teach school.

Lincoln Capitalizes

Tuesday night the Chiefs hung the loss on hot-tempered Ed Hughes by taking advantage of some slip-shod Demon defensive play and capitalizing on some timely hits.

Hughes gave Lincoln its first tally in the second inning when he backed up 3rd, —following Pug Williamson's single which sent Mike Hershberger to 3rd—and then threw wildly into right field. Mike romped home with ease.

The Chiefs, who got able pitching from Bunk Warren and Bryant Wasdell, made it 3-0 in the 5th. A walk, fielder's choice and Con Bacon's single plated the first run of the frame and then Hughes' bases-loaded walk to Don Gordon supplied the second.

Des Moines finally broke the ice in the 6th to get its lone run off Warren via John Herrnstein's single, a walk and another single by John Simicich.

Bacon, Gordon Team

Bacon's second hit of the night and his second stolen base, plus Gordon's single, got the Chiefs a single run in the 7th and they added the 5th run in the 8th.

George Olson got his second straight single—Deacon Jones—sidelined with a wrist injury—ran for him and scored when Al Schrader ripped a double into the left field corner.

Wasdell spelled Warren in the 7th, with 2 out and Demons on first and second, and shutout the visitors on a lone infield hit the rest of the way.

Helping to frustrate the league leaders was the fact they left 13 runners stranded. The Demons left the bases loaded in the first and 8th and had runners in scoring position in all but 3 innings.

Smoke Signals . . . Warren allowed only 7 hits and fanned 7 during his tenure . . . Bacon has stolen 4 bases in 2 nights . . . Lincoln had a squeeze play misfire in the 5th . . . The Little League All-Stars edged the Little League champs 5-4 in the bottom of the 5th inning in the pre-game contest.

Giants Smash Bucs' Attempt With 15 Hits

. . . Pittsburgh Clobbered By 12-5

Pittsburgh (AP)—The league-leading San Francisco Giants hammered Pittsburgh Pitchers for 15 hits here Tuesday night and trounced the Pirates 12-5. Giant southpaw John Antonelli, who went all the way, gave up 10 hits and socked a two-run homer.

The victory enabled the Giants to hold their 3½-game lead over the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers, who trimmed Philadelphia 5-2.

Antonelli fanned 6 and walked none in picking up his 18th victory of the year compared to 7 losses.

Swats Second Homer

Antonelli's homer, his second this season, was a long blow into the upper deck of the right field stands in the 8th inning.

Daryl Spencer socked his 10th homer of the year for the Giants off the scoreboard clock in left field in the 4th. It came with nobody on base.

Spencer also doubled, and Willie Mays chipped in with a pair of doubles for the Giants.

Which Route To Take?

What's the quickest and most effective method of putting together a winning big-time college football team?

Clay Stapleton, Iowa State's second-year coach, put the spotlight on that question at the Big 8 meeting in Kansas City.

Generally, there are two schools of thought. One way is to round up a large number of players and hope to land enough good players to get you over the hump.

The second is to concentrate on signing a select few.

Obviously, in this era of the grant-in-aid, the first method is more expensive than the second.

There are good and bad points for each side.

In the Big 8, Iowa State exemplifies the small squad, cream-of-the-crop philosophy, while Nebraska, Colorado, Missouri, Kansas and Kansas State are going for numbers. Oklahoma has a large squad, but since the Sooners aren't building we can discount them at the moment.

'Select Few'

"We are not after numbers at Iowa State," Stapleton said last week. "We want a select few and we are concentrating on only the boys we think will help us.

"We feel it not only is financially unsound to have a large squad, but it also causes a morale problem."

The Cyclone brochure lists 46 players—smallest team in the league—and Stapleton reports he expects only 39 in fall camp.

Clay's philosophy is all right as far as it goes, but I think he's counting his Cyclones before the wind comes up.

His whole program is based on getting the best players from all over the country. If he is successful, he can get the job done with a small squad. But the chances of Iowa State, a perennial so-so club, landing 35 of the best in the land each year is somewhat remote.

Pocketbook Pinch

Actually, Clay might like to have a larger squad, but the Cyclones are handicapped in the pocketbook department. They don't pull in many spectators (an understatement) and therefore can't count on a great number of scholarships.

Nebraska, which is betting on the strength-in-numbers routine, has had steady box office income, but still had to come up with the Touchdown and Extra Point Clubs to stay in the recruiting picture.

From here it looks like the numbers racket is the most effective crash program—since you can't guarantee getting all the best, but might get some. After you're on top, then you can become selective.

It will be interesting to see who gets there first—Iowa State with a small squad or the other Big 8 teams who are corralling players in wholesale lots.

Iowans Not 'Select'

Stapleton, by the way, apparently doesn't think Iowans are very select. Of the 46 players listed on his squad, only 13 are from Iowa.

Which brings up another question—what's the ratio of home state to out-of-state players in the Big 8 this year.

The answer will be supplied in this corner Friday.

Run In 10th Wins Issue For Chisox

Chicago (AP) — Billy Goodman's run-scoring double with two out in the 10th inning gave the league-leading Chicago White Sox an uphill 5-4 victory over Boston here Tuesday night.

The battling White Sox had to come from behind with two runs in the 9th inning to tie the game and ultimately gain a victory which preserved their two-game lead over the Cleveland Indians.

With one out in the 10th, Jim Landis singled but was out at second on an attempted steal. Sherm Lollar then drew a walk and Goodman drove his double into the right centerfield corner.

It was the 30th one-run victory for the Sox, who now have won 11 extra inning games against two such defeats.

Turk Lown, 3rd Chicago pitcher, gained his 9th victory in 11 decisions. Red's reliever Mike Fornieles suffered his 3rd loss against 3 triumphs.

Gladkin Is Disqualified For Interference In 3rd

By Al Beebe

Heavily-favored Gladkin was disqualified after winning the 3rd race Tuesday to highlight racing activity at the Fairgrounds.

Gladkin, ridden by jockey Kenneth Hare, had been bet down to 6-5 odds at post time, but was booted back to 3rd place for interference in the stretch run.

The decision moved Lee Mor and James M. ahead of Gladkin in the final placing. Lee Mor returned $12.80 to win tickets, while James M. paid a healthy $29.40 to place.

Hare rode 3 winners later in the day, including an easy jaunt aboard Sylvan Lady in the 8th, which proved the longest winning bet of the day, returning $26.80.

Even-money favorite Hidden Fury came on in the backstretch and held off a late rush by Gay Buddy and Deluxe Edition to win the featured 7th race, "The Esquire Club." Boyd Morris rode the winner, the 3-year-old returning $4.00, $3.40 and $2.60.

Fast View was a late scratch in the feature.

True's Pride and Bell's Phil combined for a $72.40 daily double, while a consolation payoff of $9.20 was presented when Soddy Lee scratched out of the second race.

The day's handle of $132,332 sent the total for the meet's 13 days to $2,070,153.

HAPPY HAROLD PICKS:

Harold

(Editor's Note: Winning at the races is just a matter of using a little horse sense. Recognizing this, the Star sports staff continues to bring you Happy Harold, whose Fairground selections are guaranteed to come straight from the horse's mouth.)

Most folks seem to feel that to have horseracing one must have a track. Such is not the case.

Here in Lincoln, for instance, one could stage a satisfying short-distance event between, say, the Cornhusker Tee Pee Room and the National Bank of Commerce, parimutuel windows being set up at the latter establishment for the benefit of bettors.

Or, for a longer race, the horses could be launched at the Runza Drive Inn, proceeding thence through various streets and alleys to the State Capitol Building, with bettors following in their cars. The race could then proceed up the Capitol staircase to the Dome. Of course, there's always the danger of some unscrupulous horse taking the elevator. A Governor's Committee would have to watch for that.

First race—1, Quisiana; 2, Leafy Lane; 3, Early Sundy.

Second race—1, King Sabu; 2, Kindeau; 3, Wina Much.

Third race—1, Epamanda; 2, Biloxi Belle; 3, Royal Mistake.

Fourth race—1, Berliner; 2, Twins Doll; 3, Birdie-Doo.

Fifth race—1, Semison; 2, Lady Red; 3, Benny Tour.

Sixth race—1, Wait Around; 2, Burning Candle; 3, Ole Different.

Seventh race—1, Sir Bey; 2, Deeveetee; 3, Indian Sign.

Eighth race—1, INDIGO STAR; 2, I'm Expectin; 3, Make-A-Funny.

Carmen Liked Over Fullmer

. . . In Midleweight Scrap Friday

San Francisco (AP) — Odds ranging from 2-1 to 7-5 Tuesday favored Carmen Basilio over Gene Fullmer on Friday night when they battle at the Cow Palace for the NBA world middleweight boxing title.

Still there wasn't much wagering reported on the outcome of the scheduled 15-rounder between the two belters who each has at one time held possession of the 160-pound crown.

Winds Up Drills

Fullmer, the Mormon mauler from West Jordan, Utah, already has wound up his public drills with only one running and some loosening up due the rest of the week.

Basilio scheduled more boxing as he worked to sharpen his attack.

Told that the odds were against his man, Fullmer's manager Marv Jenson replied, "Odds mean nothing to us. We're getting ready for an important fight and both Gene and I know Basilio will run second best, even if the odds are reported 2-1."

Gene had just finished his final public sparring session, belting Billy Murray with a vicious body attack. Then Tuesday, behind closed doors in a secret drill, he held an additional workout in preparation for his foe from Chittenango, N. Y.

Boxes Two Rounds

Basilio meanwhile completed his sparring with two more fast rounds against Leo Owens to make his total 111 since he opened training.

Jo Goodwin Leads Pack In National

Washington (AP) — Joanne Goodwin, a trim little thing with a mound of curly brown hair, cut par to pieces again here Tuesday in leading the way out of the second round of the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship.

Miss Goodwin, 23-year-old daughter of a Haverhill, Mass. pro, routed Sharon Fladoos, 16, of Dubuque, the Iowa junior champion, 6 and 4.

She rapped 2 strokes off par for the 14 holes at Congressional County Club. The performance subordinated the winning performances of defending champion Anne Quast and major contender JoAnne Gunderson, the 1957 women's titleholder.

For the 28 holes it took her to advance to today's 3rd round, Miss Goodwin was 3 under par on Congressional's 6,457-yard, 37-37—74 tournament course.

Miss Quast, 21, of Marysville, Wash., was 1 under for 26 holes and Miss Gunderson, 20-year-old Kirkland, Wash. strawberry blonde, 2 over for 28.

STOBBS SAVES SENATOR WIN

Detroit (AP) — Chuck Stobbs snuffed out a 9th-inning Detroit threat and saved a brilliant pitching job by Pedro Ramos here Tuesday night during Washington's 3-1 triumph before 18,863 fans who saw the final night game of the season at Briggs Stadium.

Al Kaline hit Ramos' first pitch in the 9th inning for a single, and Charlie Maxwell ripped a foul ball down the right field line.

Sox Get Klu From Pirates

. . . To Give Help In AL Race

Chicago (AP)—Chicago's White Sox obtained Ted Kluszewski, the once-mighty National League slugger, grom Pittsburgh Tuesday in a move that could make easier their efforts to win the American League pennant.

To complete the waiver transaction, the White Sox—with a team batting average of only .250 and a major league low of 76 homers—gave up outfielder Harry Simpson and Bob Sagers, the latter an infielder with Indianapolis, a Sox affiliate in the American Assn. Sagers immediately was assigned to Columbus of the International League, a Pirate affiliate.

Kluszewski, 34, appeared in only 60 games for Pittsburgh this season, mostly as a pinch-hitter. He had only two homers and 17 runs batted in along with a batting average of .244.

"It's a good move for me because it is going to give me more of a chance to play regularly," said the muscular Kluszewski when told of the deal. "I just didn't figure in Pittsburgh's plans. I hate to leave all my friends in Pittsburgh, but I would rather play regularly. I'll leave for Chicago either late today or tomorrow."

For 9 years with the Cincinnati Reds, Big Klu was a batting powerhouse. He led the National League in homers with 49 in 1954, threatening Hack Wilson's record of 56 until he faded in the final month. He hit 251 homers, drove in 886 runs and [illegible] times batted better than .300 in a season.

In 1957 the former Indiana football star sprained his back and appeared in only 69 games.

Castoff Ike Boone Leads Braves Past Cardinals In Extra Frame

St. Louis (AP) — Ray Boone, an American League castoff, saved Milwaukee with a two-out, game-tying pinch single in the 9th, then veteran Joe Adcock singled home the winning run in the 10th during a Braves 3-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals here Tuesday night.

Bob Gibson, the Cardinals' rookie fireballer, held a 1-0 lead in the 9th in a duel with Warren Spahn.

Eddie Mathews led off the 10th with his 3rd hit, a double, and Adcock grounded a single to left, knocking out Gibson. Felix Mantilla's pop single off Lindy McDaniel added an insurance run.

Don McMahon, now 4-1, was the Braves' winner in relief. He was in trouble in the 9th after Ken Boyer's booming triple, but he got pinch hitters George Crowe and Stan Musial to end the inning.

It was a badly-needed victory for the defending champs, as the scoreboard showed San Francisco and Los Angeles had won their games.

Spahn, bidding for his 17th victory, didn't deserve to lose.

Gibson, a 23-year-old right-hander who once played for basketball's Harlem Globetrotters, pitched out of jam after jam through 8 innings. He fanned 7 but walked 5 and it was a leadoff pass to veteran pinch hitter Mickey Vernon in the 9th which led to the Braves' tying run.

SF's McCovey Tops Rookies

New ork (AP) — Wallopin' Willie McCovey of San Francisco, although a big leaguer less than a month, has thrust himself in front in the National League Rookie-of-the-ear competition in a season relatively bare of first-year stars.

McCovey, in 22 games since joining the Giants on July 30, has batted .384. He has two doubles, 3 triples, 7 homers and 22 runs batted in.

There is little in the way of rookie opposition for the Golden Gate slugger.

The pre-season favorites outfielder Ron Fairly of Los angeles and second baseman George Anderson of Philadelphia, have not lived up to to their training camp billing. Fairly is hitting only .244 in 98 games, while Anderson although more than adequate on defense—shows a microscopic .207 mark after 124 games.

Pitchers Norm Sherry of Los Angeles and Ernie Broglio of St. Louis may give McCovey a run for rookie honors. Sherry, brought up from St. Paul of the American Assn. on July 2, has won 4 games, lost two and struck out 38 in 52 innings. He has been the Dodgers' top reliever the past month. Broglio's record is 6-11, but he has pitched 3 shutouts and fanned 104 in 150 2-3 innings.

Maye Doing Well

Lee Maye has done well since Milwaukee recalled him from Louisville of the AA in mid-July. He is batting .304 in 27 games.

The leading rookies in the American League are outfielder Bob Allison of Washington and pitcher Jim Perry of Cleveland.

Allison, who has played in all of the Senators' 124 games, is hitting .272 with 17 doubles, 9 triples, 28 homers and 74 RBI. He has slumped in the last month, however, hitting only 3 homers. Perry has 9 victories, 5 setbacks and an earned run average of 3.09. The big righthander won 5 games in relief and—more recently—4 as a starter, shutting out Boston and Washington.

A's Snyder Considered

Jim McAnany of the White Sox, Jim Baxes of Cleveland, Russ Snyder of Kansas City and Jerry Casale of Boston also merit consideration.

McAnany, up from the minors since June 26, hs hit .284 in 47 games. Baxes, 30 years old, has slammed 14 homers in 65 games. Jim played for Los Angeles earlier in the season and hit 5 home runs. Snyder, recalled from the Pacific Coast League 6 weeks ago, shows a .318 batting mark after 43 games and Casale has an 8-8 pitching record for the Red Sox.

Willie Tasby of Baltimoe, a rampaging freshman earlier in the year, has slumped to .247.

Boyer Chosen Card Captain

St. Louis (AP)—The 7th-place St. Louis Cardinals revived the position of team captain Tuesday and named third baseman Ken Boyer to the $500-a-year job.

"The ball players look to Ken to lead the club," said manager Solly Hemus. "The job gives him authority to beef on certain plays."

Boyer, 28, is hitting .319 with 23 home runs.

Insufficient Evidence To Indict

New York (AP)—District Attorney Frank S. Hogan said here Tuesday his investigation of circumstances surrounding the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight championship fight in June has not produced sufficient evidence for an indictment.

He also revealed the mysterious "Mr. X" mentioned earlier in the probe to be Anthony "Fat Tony" Salerno, a harlem gangland figure.

This information came to light when Hogan gave reporters a 6-page statement tracing the promotion from its source and quoting testimony of various key figures called in for questioning, including promoter Bill Rosensohn, Vincent Velella—now president of Rosensohn Enterprises — and Charley Black, described as a "fixture in the office of Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager.

The statement also brings in the name of Gilbert Beckley, described as a well-known gambler and a friend of Rosensohn.

Hogan said the statement would be presented to a judge when the district attorney's office applies to have grand jury minutes of the investigation turned over to the New York State Athletic Commission, which is conducting its own probe.

COLT HOPEFULS BREATHE EASY

Rock's Pair Pace Tribe By Yankees

Cleveland (AP) — Rocky Colavito hit a pair of home runs here Tuesday night to lead his homer-happy Cleveland teammates to their 7th straight victory, a 6-3 decision over the New York Yankees before 36,143 fans.

The Yanks took a 1-0 lead in the first inning off Cal McLish (16-6), but the Indians rebounded with 4 in their half of the inning. Vic Power tied the score with a smash over the left field fence.

Two walks followed, and Colavito then drove a Whitey Ford pitch into the same sector for a 4-1 Cleveland lead.

Cleveland added two more in the 5th inning when Yogi Berra, playing right field, opened the door by dropping Power's drive for a two-base error. Minnie Minoso sacrificed Power to third, from where Power scored on Tito Francona's fly ball to center field.

GAME COMMISSION WILL OFFER FARMERS PLANTS

Free trees and other nursery stock are available to farmers from the Nebraska game commission for the establishment of wildlife cover plantings.

Technical assistance also is available, the commission said.

Each year, with the cooperation of the Soil Conservation Service, the Game Commission offers a limited number of plant stock to farmers and ranchers co-operating with the broad requirements of an upland game restoration project.

Conservationists have determined that one of the main causes for lower wildlife populations is lack of cover of all kinds.

The tree and shrub stock may be used in any of the following ways:

Stabilizing ditches and gullies; plantings at the heads of draws, ditches and gullies; field borders; field divisions; livestock shelters; control of wind and snow drift; improvement of farm ponds; and in block type plantings designed for winter time protection of game birds and animals.

Multiflora rose are also available for hedgerow planting.

The commission will furnish the planting stock and fencing materials to landowners without charge. However, landowners must be responsible for soil preparation and the planting and cultivation of the trees.

Willard Schmidt of Cincinnati pitched in 16 games before he gave up a home run this season. Duke Snider of Los Angeles hit it.

What Rambler's Success
Means To Every Motorist

Photographed at 350 Acre American Motors Proving Grounds in Burlington, Wisc.

"Why crash programs can't produce Ramblers"

MY NAME IS Whitey Beaster and I'm Chief of the Test Drivers at American Motors' Proving Grounds. For 21 years I've been driving test cars for our company, so I've put hundreds of Ramblers—both production cars and prototypes of new models—through their engineering trials. And we also run exhaustive tests on the other American makes and practically every foreign car.

That's why I know that no "crash program" can produce a car with the quality and trouble-free operation of today's Rambler.

There's a big hurry right now to tool up several cars with about the same wheelbase as Rambler, and it's common knowledge that they will copy Rambler ideas. But one thing nobody can copy and nobody can buy is Rambler's experience in building quality Compact* cars. Here's what you need to build a car of Rambler's basic excellence:

1. YOU NEED YEARS—NOT MONTHS—OF TESTING. When our first car with Single Unit Construction* came off the production line in 1940, it had more than four years of engineering and testing back of it.

It wasn't until after eight years of designing and experimenting and millions of miles on this test track and our "torture roads," that they brought out the first compact Rambler in 1950.

Even with all that background, they started slowly and carefully, with only one model.

2. YOU NEED BILLIONS AND BILLIONS OF OWNER-DRIVEN MILES. After a car goes into production, the public will find "bugs" no engineer ever dreamed of. We test drivers can give cars 10 times the punishment the average motorist would—and then some fragile, 90-pound lady will find a way we never dreamed of to strip a gear or burn up a transmission.

As a result of what our engineers learned from nearly 3,000,000 owners of our single unit cars, we've made constant improvements over the past 19 years.

On Ramblers alone, I'm told, owners have rolled up more than 25 billion miles since 1950. With all that experience, every Rambler has been better than the previous year's model.

Today—well, just ask any Rambler owner. See if he doesn't tell you it's the most trouble-free car he has ever owned.

For example, it's generally admitted Rambler has the tightest, quietest, most solid car in the industry.

3. YOU NEED TIME TO DEVELOP A NEW KIND OF MAN. I spend a lot of time with Rambler engineers. The old-timers tell me the toughest part about changing over to Single Unit Construction wasn't designing a completely new car and assembly line, but training a new kind of engineer and production man.

You see, ordinary cars are built with a separate body and separate frame which are bolted together. Bodies and frames are usually built in different plants. Body engineers and frame engineers work separately. The same goes for production men.

But, with Rambler's modern Single Unit Construction (which all the imitators will copy), body and frame are built together as one solid unit like an airplane. There's no such thing as a separate body and separate frame. So, you have to train a whole new breed of engineers and production men—men who think not in terms of frame alone or body alone, but also like an aircraft engineer in terms of a single unit. They tell me this takes not months, but years and years.

4. YOU'VE GOT TO HAVE PRIDE OF CRAFTSMANSHIP. I don't think there is any automobile plant in the world where there is more pride of craftsmanship, more attention paid to quality, than in our plants in Kenosha and Milwaukee. And I don't mean just by management and the foremen.

Everybody I talk to—the officials and stewards of the unions—and the other employees—all have the same idea—"Build every Rambler as though you were going to own it yourself."

5. YOU'VE GOT TO HAVE UNIFORM QUALITY CONTROL. They turn out more complete automobiles at the American Motors plant in Kenosha than any other single plant in America. That makes it a lot easier to keep on your toes and build every car with top quality, than when plants are scattered all over the country. That's another of Rambler's big advantages in building a better quality car.

Do you remember how many years it took to get the "bugs" out of all the cars after World War II? The whole automobile industry put on "crash programs" to get back into production on the same models they had been building before the war. You know, then, that no company, no matter how big or how rich, is going to be able—with a completely new, untried model—to equal Rambler.

Yes, I'll say it again—"crash programs can't produce Ramblers," because they can't reproduce Rambler's basic excellence.

NEW PROOF OF RAMBLER'S BASIC EXCELLENCE

Best Satisfied Owners Of Any Low-Priced Make

POPULAR MECHANICS magazine reports: "Not one owner of a Rambler Six rates his car 'poor.' Actually less than one percent (0.9 percent to be precise) of all Rambler owners give their cars a poor rating. This is the best record achieved by any American car since our Owners Report series began in 1950 . . . usually four or five percent rate their cars 'poor.' Occasionally as many as 10 percent."

Rambler owners are better satisfied . . . Rambler sales are at an all-time high and constantly growing . . . Rambler resale value is highest of all low-priced cars, because of one thing—basic excellence. Basic excellence that shows in better balance. Neither too large nor too small. Neither overpowered nor underpowered. Instead, the best balance of performance with economy . . . the best balance of big car room with small car handling ease . . . the best balance of high quality with low price.

Terry Drafts Slum Clearance, Parking Plan For Scottsbluff

Scottsbluff, Neb. (AP)—State Sen. Terry Carpenter has prepared a combination off-street parking and slum clearance project on Broadway, Scottsbluff's main street, to the City Council.

As explained to the council, the program eventually would turn more than a block of the west side of South Broadway into parking facilities.

Under Carpenter's program, the Council would condemn and acquire the property, most of which now houses taverns. The senator said such a program would force the taverns to scatter out and the city should take care in the future not to allow taverns to "congregate" in one area.

Joe Smith

One of the taverns involved is the Joe Smith, owned by Carpenter.

Before going to the Council, Carpenter presented his proposal to the Chamber of Commerce and was joined in making the proposition by Charles Davey, chamber president.

Carpenter's proposal also would have the city acquire a small park from the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad to allow widening of a street which leads off a congested five-point intersection. The park borders on the proposed parking area.

The city also would work with the State Highway Department in widening about four blocks, now two lane, from the Burlington tracks to a bridge over the North Platte River.

Corn, Milo Outlook Dips Again

... IN CENTRAL, WESTERN PORTIONS; EAST STILL LOOKS GOOD

Dry land corn and milo in the central and western counties absorbed another drop in condition the past week because of hot, windy and dry weather, the weekly crop report said Tuesday.

The State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics noted however, that the crop is still holding its good condition in the east.

Many areas need rain to assure proper filling and a good quality crop, the federal crop observers said.

Irrigated corn remains promising but water requirements again were stepped up as the hot weather persisted.

"Dry land corn and milo took a beating from heat again last week in several central, south central and western counties," the crop report said.

Many fields fired and some are already damaged beyond recovery.

The outlook still was favorable in most eastern counties although several southeastern counties would benefit materially if moisture comes soon, the report said.

A few northeast counties also need a good rain to hold present prospects.

Corn has almost passed the silking stage. A large part of the crop is in the roasting ear stage with the most advanced fields in the late roasting ear stage, the report said.

Sorghum is mostly headed while soybeans are passing from the bloom stage and setting pods. The crop is rated in good condition — both that under irrigation and that on dry land.

Hot weather set back alfalfa and pastures again, the report said. Moderate temperatures and rains are needed for these crops. A little over half of the third cutting of alfalfa is finished but late growth is extremely spotted, the report said.

Some wild hay is still being cut as the outlook for winter feed supplies was dimmed in the dry sections of the state. In a few localities, some drought-stricken corn and milo has been cut for forage, the federal crop observers noted.

Farmers have made good progress in getting ground in shape for fall seeding. Some legumes were planted last week in the southeast. However, top soil is dry in most fields intended for winter wheat and rye planting.

While a few southern Panhandle counties received welcome moisture last week, most of the major wheat counties need a good rain before seeding time, the report said.

Hot weather held down production rates and livestock gains, also, the report said. The seasonal rise in fall sales of stocker and feeder cattle is starting also.

Some close culling occurred in areas with short winter feed supplies, the report said, but many producers appear in no hurry to sell.

Detroiter Who Hit Sheriff With Chair Nabbed By Dam

...Escaped From Webster County Jail

Red Cloud, Neb. (AP)—Richard Allen Fappas, 23, of Detroit who escaped from the Webster County Jail Monday night after attacking the sheriff with a chair was recaptured Tuesday afternoon.

Sheriff Tom Kelley said Fappas was captured about a mile north of the Bostwick diversion dam which lies between Guide Rock and Superior.

Several persons in the area had recognized Fappas from his description and directed officers to the area.

Nuckolls County Sheriff Emil Klawitter was circling the area in a plane and Kelley and his deputy, Everett Niles, were searching along the ground when they ran down the fugitive.

No Resistence

Kelley said Fappas offered no resistance. He will be charged with assault with intent to kill, Kelley said.

Fappas dug his way out of jail June 12 but was recaptured in Sterling, Colo. and returned. Monday he was given a one-year sentence for breaking and entering and evading custody.

When the sheriff came to lock him in his cell Monday night, Fappas armed with a chair, leaped out from behind a door and struck Kelley 4 times.

Blood from the cut obscured the sheriff's vision and Fappas fled. After receiving medical treatment, Kelley joined the search for the man.

Brooks, Curtis Spotlight Sherman Dam Program

By Gene Budig

St. Paul, Neb.—Gov. Ralph G. Brooks and Sen. Carl T. Curtis spotlighted the evening program at the Sherman Dam ground-breaking ceremonies here Tuesday.

The appearance of the two on the same platform was of special interest because Brooks has been mentioned as a possible candidate for Curtis' seat in the senate.

Curtis told the turnout of 1,500 that "Conservation of our natural resources is a responsibility that falls upon each generation."

The senator continued, "If we neglect the responsibility the next generation will suffer a loss. The earth is the Lord's and man has a Divine commission to subdue it, to develop it, to improve it, to conserve it and to hand it on to future generations a little better than we found it."

Brooks said, "It's a long way from the Pyramids of Egypt to the valley of the Nebraska Loup—long in space and long in time—but the forces of nature at both ends are the same.

"One was used to build monuments to the dead. The other to provide substance for the living. It is not so much a difference in the powers of science and government, but in motives which put them into operation."

Game Commissioner Mel Steen and former 4th District Congressman A. L. Miller also appeared on the program.

Cornhusker Ordnance Plant Eyed By Powder Company

... Might Manufacture Rocket Fuel

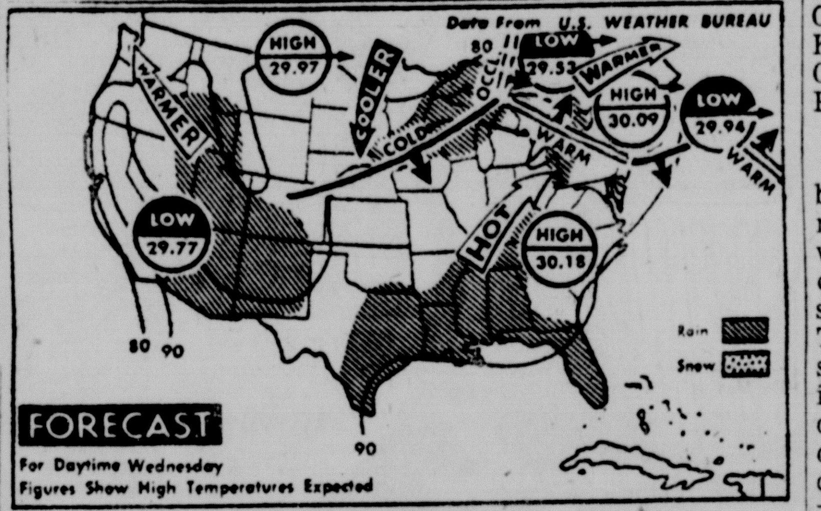
Grand Island, Neb. (AP)—A survey team from the Hercules Powder Co., Wilmington, Del., arrived in Grand Island for a survey of the Cornhusker Ordnance plant and the community.

Hercules is one of 6 firms that will submit bids to the Army to take over an ordnance plant for the manufacture of solid rocket propellant fuel. Cornhusker is one of 4 plants under consideration.

The other plants are Kansas Ordnance Plant at Parsons, Kan.; Ravenna Arsenal, Apco, Ohio; and Louisiana Ordnance Plant, Shreveport.

Remodeling?

The purpose of the survey by the 8-man team is to determine what sort of remodeling would have to be done so the cost can be figured for inclusion in the bid to the Army. The team also planned to study the labor market, housing and other facilities. Andrew Van Beek, manager of ordnance operations for Hercules, headed the team.



LITTLE CHANGE SEEN FOR PLAINS

Scattered showers and thundershowers are slated for the central and southern plateau Wednesday, Gulf Coast and Lakes regions and parts of the east. Hot humid weather will dominate the eastern third of the nation except for warm temps in northern New England. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Stock Market Volume Is Up

New York (AP)—The stock market made a mild recovery Tuesday while light volume continued to reflect Wall Street's cautious outlook.

Volume improved to 1,960,000 shares from Monday's 1,860,000, the smallest in a year and a half.

Some aircrafts rebounded nicely from their setback of Monday. Steels, motors, electronics and some aluminums made gains. Rails and utilities did very little.

The market was sluggish and mixed at the start, improved gradually until early afternoon, then slipped below its peak.

The Dow Jones industrial average rose 2.74 to 655.96.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 20 cents to $229.40 with the industrials up 50 cents while both the rails and utilities were unchanged.

Of 1,167 issues traded—another narrow market—534 rose and 415 fell. There were 20 new highs for the year and 21 new lows.

Nine of the 15 most active stocks rose, four fell and two were unchanged.

U.S. government bonds declined in light dealings.

Corporate bonds also retreated as short term money rates inched higher.

Bond sales totaled $4,190,000 par value compared with $4,560,000.

Most Grains Slow, Steady

Chicago (AP)—Profit takers went to work in the wheat futures market today but prices on the Board of Trade maintained their advances of the previous session.

Moderate flour mill buying and a revival of export business absorbed the liquidation with minimum setbacks. Rye eased slightly but other grains and soybeans were mostly slow and steady.

Sales of 1,300,000 bushels of wheat to Yugoslavia brought the first export business into the wheat pit in more than a week.

Soybeans recovered moderate losses on a report that crushings for July totaled almost 32 million bushels compared with a little more than 33 million in June. The smaller July figure, however, was better than some dealers expected.

The government's weekly weather and crop summary said much of the promising corn crop now is rapidly passing the need for moisture but that less mature acreage still is in need of rainfall.

The report said there is a shortage of moisture in 20 per cent of Illinois, 35 per cent of Indiana and 27 per cent of Kentucky. The outlook was reported still fair to good in eastern Kansas and Nebraska and southeastern South Dakota.

Wheat closed unchanged to ⅛ cent a bushel lower, September $1.91⅛-91; corn ¼ lower to ¼ higher, Septemberr $1.18⅜; oats ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, September new type contract 66½; rye ⅛-⅝ lower, September $1.30 and soybeans unchanged to ½ higher, September $2.10.

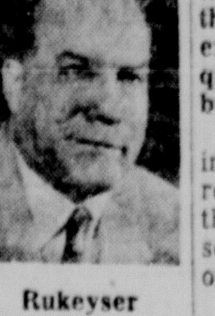
Investment Entails Making Judgment On The Future

Mail from readers indicate at times excessive concern over the one best procedure.

Investment in the nature of things entails making a judgment concerning the future.



Rukeyser

Experienced executives in big companies, in facing similar projections of coming events, recognize the limitations of forecasts.

They strive for a degree of flexibility, which will give them an opportunity to review from time to time whether the actual course of events is in accordance with original expectations.

Amateur investors, on the other hand, tend almost to be neurotic in wanting assurances that they are doing the right thing.

It is more mature to recognize that there is risk in making present decisions about future developments.

In business and investment, it is the role of the responsible executive to make such decisions.

But, while striving for a good record, it is well to know that results will fall short of perfection.

The unsophisticated assume that some people know all the answers.

But even the greats and the near-greats occasionally fumble.

The sagacious Bernard M. Baruch made friends with his autobiography by his candor in recording his own mistakes.

Today the beginners want to know which will be the pace-setters among growth stocks. That, of course, remains to be seen. Only time will provide a definitive answer.

But nowadays alert corporate management has developed techniques which are conductive to better than average growth patterns.

For example, a financial executive of a growth company, American Cyanamid, remarked that in passing on new projects, the management expects a rapid payoff—usually in five years or less. In other words, the company hopes to get all of its invested capital for a new project back within five years in terms of net income after taxes and depreciation allowances.

Where the individual investor lacks the experience and knowledge for self selection of promising securities, he should be guided by professional counsellors. If the fund is for $100,000 or more, the investor can retain an investment counsellor on a fee basis. For smaller commitments, the investor can get the benefit of counsel through participating in merged trust funds operated by a bank or trust company, or in mutual funds or so-called closed-end general investment company shares.

The mutual funds have been especially popular, but they frequently add as much as 8% for selling expenses.

On the other hand, the investment company shares, which are not ballyhooed by salesmen, sometimes sell at a discount, that is, at less than the company would bring if its assets were sold.

In the case of mutual funds, there are some, especially those operated as affiliates of investment counsel firms, which are available without the big premium for selling expense. These can be acquired at or near their actual break-up value.

In making selections, the investor should check the reputation of the sponsors and the financial record of the security through his own bank or investment broker.

It is more realistic to know the limitations as well as the lures in securities.

It doesn't make sense to avoid participation in national economic development on the specious ground that you are waiting for a "sure thing."

(Mr. Rukeyser will be pleased to receive inquiries from readers concerning their financial problems. Letters, with self-addressed, stamped envelopes, should be sent in care of this newspaper. Questions of general interest will be answered in the column.

Nehru Warns Reds To Keep Hands Off

Himalayan Protectorates Of Bhutan And Sikkim Will Be Defended

New Delhi (AP)—Red China got a warning from Prime Minister Nehru Tuesday: India certainly will defend the Himalayan protectorates of Bhutan and Sikkim against any invasion.

And his government is fully alive to its responsibility for the preservation of the security of India, Nehru told Parliament.

Nehru

He spoke against a background of worsening relations between Peiping and New Delhi, strained since Chinese troops crushed a popular uprising in Tibet last spring.

Few days pass without new reports in the Indian press of Communist Chinese designs on the two protectorates or on Indian territories south of Tibet.

Parliament members questioned Nehru about growing fears in Bhutan and Sikkim that Peiping is massing troops to claim both for China.

"Any infringement of their border will be infringement of our undertaking (to protect them) and we shall certainly defend them against such intrusion," Nehru replied.

Bhutan and Sikkim adjoin each other. India's northeast frontier area is on the east and Nepjal on the west. India took over their protection after gaining independence from Britain, their previous guardian.

Bhutan has 700,000 persons and is about half the size of Kentucky. Sikkim has 140,000 and is smaller than Delaware.

PRECAUTION

Washington (AP) — Six or 7 Navy ships normally engaged in patrolling the north Atlantic will "move into certain positions" as a precautionary measure when President Eisenhower flies to Europe Wednesday in a jet airliner.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said the presidential plane, leaving Andrews Air Force base, will fly at an altitude of between 30,000 and 35,000 feet.

Hagerty said there will be no air patrol of the Atlantic flight course.

Conductor Bernstein Is Man Of Hour In Russia

By A. I. Goldberg

Moscow (AP)—Conductor Leonard Bernstein of the New York Philharmonic marked his 41st birthday Tuesday as a signally honored visitor to Russia, native land of his parents.

Soviet newspapers harped on one string in birthday salutations: Bernstein is wonderful, the orchestra is wonderful and the music they play is wonderful.

Bernstein

The energetic pianist, composer and conductor, born in Lawrence, Mass., played down the anniversary. He told a friend:

"Don't make too much of this. I don't like to be reminded I'm getting old. After 25, it's all downhill."

23-Day Tour

You'd never prove any slump, however, by the way capacity Moscow audiences are reacting to performances of Bernstein and his orchestra, on a 23-day tour of the Soviet Union.

Applause and demands for encores at their third concert here Monday night topped even the terrific reception at their first two engagements.

After the final curtain Bernstein went to talk over with friends the possibility of using some Russian legends in a symphony. He turned in about 3 a.m.

He turned out in mid-morning, in blue jersey and old slacks, to rehearse the orchestra in Charles Ives' "Unanswered Question" and two Stravinsky pieces, "Rites of Spring" and "Concerto for Woodwinds and Pianc."

As he raised his baton for the opening bars, the orchestra responded with "Happy Birthday to You."

They played to their fourth packed house Tuesday night.

With excerpts from "Rites of Spring," played in Moscow itself for the first time in 30 years, Bernstein and his musicians "seemed to outdo themselves because the numerous difficulties of orchestration presented by the score were overcome with true virtuosity . . ." the Tass news agency said.

No Reservations

So far Soviet critics show no reservations toward Bernstein and his musicians, such as have been accorded some parts of the American exhibition in Moscow.

The newspapers Soviet Culture and Literary Gazette are the latest to swell the chorus of praise.

Bernstein's parents emigrated to the United States from this area as children, his mother at 3 and his father at 16.

Bernstein said he never got much Russian from them.

He recalled that as a child he had to battle to take piano lessons. He said he never got a piano until an aunt moved away and left one behind.

To Revoke License

The State Liquor Control Commission reported Tuesday it will revoke the inside beer license of V. H. Quitmeyer of Curtis for selling beer to a minor. The revocation will take effect at the close of business on Saturday, Sept. 19.

Hesitant OK Given Emerald Beer-Bowling

By Del Harding

The County Board Tuesday hesitantly approved establishment of a combination beer tavern and bowling alley at Emerald.

The unanimous decision came after 90 minutes of discussion between the 3 Board members and a public hearing at which 4 Emerald residents opposed beer being sold in the bowling alley.

Santo Quattrocchi and Merle Wilken had asked the Board for permission to remodel the Sunset Party House in Emerald into a 12-lane bowling alley. They also asked that they be allowed to buy and transfer the beer license now held by Bauer's Tavern in Emerald to the Sunset Party House.

Bowling Alley Unopposed

No opposition was expressed to remodeling the former dance hall into a $25,000 bowling alley.

But Russell Schaepe, Mrs. Charles Weichert, Richard Canfield and B. F. Tilman, all of Emerald, appeared to oppose the sale of beer at the bowling alley.

They noted that it would establish a precedent as no other bowling alley in the county is allowed to sell beer.

They also complained of the alleged effect the beer operation would have on youngsters who patronized the bowling alley.

Benefits Claimed

Quattrocchi and Wilken, who operate under the name of W and Q Enterprises, said the transfer of Bauer's beer license to the new location would reduce the traffic load on U.S. 6. They also said the transfer would eliminate outdoor toilets and other alleged health hazards at Bauer's Tavern which have drawn protests from Emerald residents.

The State Liquor Commission must still approve the beer transfer. Normally this is a formality but in this case because of the precedent being set some opposition could develop.

The Board's decision to approve the application came after a noon recess during which the Commissioners drove to Emerald and inspected the proposed location of the bowling alley, which will be known as Emerald Lanes.

No Reason Seen

Commissioner Kenneth Bourne said he couldn't see any reason to deny the beer request.

Commissioner Rollin Bailey was reluctant at first but said he believed that if a beer tavern was already operating at the location and its operators requested a bowling alley permit he doubted if there would be opposition to this.

Commissioner Ralph Harlan indicated his main opposition to the beer license was that it would give Quattrocchi and Wilken a monopoly on the beer licenses in Emerald. He noted they already hold the only other beer license there.

He said he would have preferred them to transfer the license they already hold to the new location.

Doctors To Meet

Omaha (UPI)—A physicians conference will be held here Oct. 1-3 by the Nebraska Heart Assn., designed to assist practicing physicians in the Nebraska area.

Pacifists Get Fine, 6-Month Sentence

Omaha (AP) — Ammon Hennacy, 66, of New York who describes himself as an anarchist, was fined $500 and sentenced to 6 months imprisonment for trespassing on government property.

Hennacy climbed the fence at the Atlas Missile Base site near Mead, Neb., thus becoming the 16th pacifist to be arrested for the same protest action. He turned down Federal Judge Richard Robinson's offer of probation, saying he could not accept the terms. Hennacy claims 32 previous arrests.

West Germany Readies Rousing Welcome For Ike

Bonn, Germany (UPI) —Official and unofficial West German circles Tuesday completed preparations for a tumultous welcome for President Eisenhower on his arrival Wednesday for talks with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

West German leaders hailed Eisenhower's visit as proof of his determination to protect the interests of West Germany in future East-West negotiations.

Adenauer flew back to Bonn Tuesday from a vacation in Italy. He will head the official welcoming party when Eisenhower's jet Boeing 707 airliner lands at nearby Wahn Airport.

Officials said Eisenhower would receive a welcome surpassing the pro-American demonstration for Secretary of State Christian Herter on his visit to West Berlin 5 weeks ago.

The West German government said Eisenhower would be greeted with a 21-gun salute by West German artillery. A German military band will play the American and German national anthems, and the President and chancellor will inspect an honor battalion of army, navy and air force men.

Following brief addresses, they will depart for the hour-long drive to Bad Godesberg, the Bonn suburb that houses the diplomatic colony where Eisenhower will stay during his 24-hour visit.

West German officials estimated that tens of thousands of Germans, including refugees from the Communist east, would line the 19-mile route from Wahn Airport.

Nice (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill returns to London Sunday to greet his old friend Dwight Eisenhower.

The former prime minister, on an extended Riviera vacation, will return to Nice Tuesday afternoon.

Exhibit Gets More Books

Moscow (AP)—A shipment of 2,800 books arrived from the U.S. Tuesday to replace the volumes taken off the shelves of the bookmobile display at the U.S. exhibit.

The traveling library was closed down last week after many visitors had helped themselves to the highly prized American books and left the shelves bare.

Interested parties in New York immediately reacted to the news with a shipment gathered together in 24 hours.

Exhibit officials have asked Soviet officials to station a militiaman near the exhibit when it reopens.

Brecht Film

Berlin (AP) — Berthold Brecht's famous play "Mother Courage" is being made into a movie by East Germany's state-run film company. The main role is being played by Brecht's widow, Helen Weigel.
